That's The Day Folks

You have been to Auction Sales and heard about them, but on this day,
NEXT TUESDAY, you are invited to be present at the

THE AUCTION SALE!

The Edwards Estate--Edwards' Cove WAYNESVILLE-WOODROW HIGHWAY

We have sub-divided 600 acres of good, old Haywood dirt, and will sell it to the highest bidder FOR DIVISION OF HEIRS. If you want to see a real, honest-to-goodness Auction Sale, don't fail to be present at this one, for we are going to have a great crowd of buyers at this Sale, and there will be Action apleny. This land is in the famous Pigeon Valley, and should appeal to you. It lies just off the hard surfaced highway, within sight of one of the county's best high schools and churches. More than 200 acres of it are open and cultivated; there is pasturage, timber, telephone poles, cross ties, and a great quantity of

Acid Wood

Plenty of Water

Plenty of Fruit

The home place is a beauty spot, with a good nine room house. There are a number of tenant houses and out houses in repair. This is a farm but it is only twenty minutes ride to Waynesville. Within one mile of Retreat--2 miles of Woodrow. There is plenty of good land to buy, plenty of it, but it will be a long time until such an opportunity as this comes again. It is a rare happening in farm real estate in this bounty. No matter what you buy it for, you cannot go wrong. The Terms Will Appeal to You.

Remember this Sale is Conducted by a famous Auction Organization!
