

That Smart, desirable
 "something different"

In Hart Schaffner & Marx new fall styles

YOU'LL see it; in the new Bracken colors; in the lines of wider shoulders and narrow hips; in the full trousers; in the tweed, chevots and Saxony fabrics. The values are "something different," too: they're much bigger than you'd expect for such fine quality.

You have to see these clothes to realize how little the price for them actually is

COL. JONES ROYAL HOST TO CAM AT GREAT RUBY MINES.

A trip never to be forgotten by Log Cabin campers was the one made on August 10 to Ruby City, near Willets, N. C., where Col. S. A. Jones of Waynesville entertained the entire camp at his lodge on Sugar Leaf Mountain.

Part of the group rode up on horse-back, while those less strenuously inclined arrived in state (alias the Dodge truck.) The fact that part of the trip was made in the rain was a small item in our young lives, for we were too engrossed in the gorgeous scenery to bother about the rain.

The ruby mine was the first real live mine we had ever seen, this side of a movie screen, and we felt more and more awed as we climbed numberless flights of steps on our inspection trip through the crusher house, and we trembled worse than sweet Alice, Ben Bolt, when the frequent blasts up at the quarries went off.

Who of us will ever forget the fascinating quaintness of Liberty Lodge itself? or the magnificent quality of hospitality displayed by that adorable colonel? Not one of the group wanted to leave, and it was with repeated promises to go back again that we rounded the last curve and waved "Good-bye" to our host.

Mr. O. R. Groose of Cocia, Florida has joined his family at his summer home on Main street. Mr. Groose is a prominent Florida realtor and has extensive interests here.
