JUST BE GLAD.

Oh, Heart of Mine, we shouldn't Worry so!
What we've missed of calm we could have you know!
What we've met of stormy pain and sorrow's driving rain,
We can better meet again if it blow.
For we know not every morrow
Can be sad,
So forgetting all the things
We have had,
Let us fold away our fears,
And put by our foolish cares,
And through all the coming years
Just be glad.
—James Whitcomb Riley

Presidential elections are an old story to the Majestic Range, according to Hyatt & Co. who are holding a special exhibit of these well-known ranges at their store all this week.
They say there are Majestics in homes in this county that have gone through five national elections and are still giving good service. Ten presidential terms have passed since the first of these famous ranges was manufactured. The exhibit of new model Majestic at Hyatt & Co. is well worth a visit. A fine set of cooking utensils—the choice of two sets—is being given away free with every Majestic purchased during the week.
