AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

The get-together banquet and meeting to be held on next Wednesday night will probably be the most important gathering of the kind ever held in Waynesville.

A campaign is to be mapped out for raising between twenty-five and fifty thousand dollars for the Board of Trade budget.

A president and board of directors has already been elected and there is a great determination upon the part of nearly every tax payer and progressive citizen of Waynesville to put Waynesville on the map by an advertising campaign such as is being done by all cities.

That a full time secretary-treasurer who is an advertising expert and promoter is absolutely essential is the universal opinion and it is pointed out by those who have had much experience along this line that a man not connected in any manner or form with the business life of this community should be selected. In other words; a stranger, one who has no axe to grind and who will be hired to work for Waynesville and not himself. He should not be connected with any other business as a side line. And it would be best not to hire a man because of relatives or friends in the community.

A secretary-treasurer of the Waynesville Board of Trade will not have an easy position. If he is successful in creating a spirit of cooperation among the civic leaders, he will have accomplished a great deal.

In connection with the Board of Trade with the cooperation of the ministerial association we should have a good functioning community chest or associated charities branch.

We should have the women's bureau, instead of so many different clubs and societies not only among the men, but among the women. Perhaps our secretary can mould them all into one splendid co-operating body.

The merchants bureau should be another branch.

And the merchants and farmers should and probably will be brought in closer and more friendly contact.

The advertising of Waynesville to get tourists here is very important, but of far greater importance should be that of entertaining them after they have arrived. This will be another duty of a full time secretary. He would probably promote tennis courts, horse shoe pitching contests, revise the baseball teams, create parks and flower beds on unsightly vacant lots; provide benches for tourists and the many other things so necessary in a successful tourist community and perhaps he might be able to revive the annual county fair.

Fifty thousand dollars is a small sum of money to accomplish all the things necessary, but it should go far to put Waynesville on the very top rung of tourist prosperity.

We should realize that in subscribing for memberships in the Board of Trade that it is not a donation, but a safe investment with sure and safe interest. Each membership should be at least twenty-five dollars and there are many who will take two or three hundred memberships.

Every foot of earth in Waynesville that advances in price is that much more money for the owner; whether the land is sold or not. And large property owners are the ones who profit most. In many sections of the United States double taxation assessments are made on unimproved property and greatly reduced on improved property.

Another thing is that we do not have to get behind the city administration because they are very progressive; but we should back them up and co-operate with them. We cannot expect them to do it all without encouragement.

Attend the meeting.

A CORRECTION.

The article concerning Mr. C. W. Miller, which occurred in last week's issue of the Mountaineer, unavoidably left out the name of one of his popular daughters, Mrs. D. Drayton Perry, who lives in Chester, S. C. Mrs. Perry spends several weeks each year with her father, and she has a host of friends in Waynesville.

A PROGRESSIVE ADMINISTRATION.

Waynesville has one of the most progressive administrations of any city in North Carolina. New streets; new white way system; additional acreage added to the watershed and many other things all looking to the future growth of Waynesville.

Praise where it is deserved is always in order and every fair minded citizen will agree with the statement that our Mayor and Board of Aldermen are giving this city a real progressive public spirited and capable administration. Mayor J. H. Howell, Aldermen Frank W. Miller, S. H. Jones and W. T. Schitor.

IF SATISFIED, STEP OUT.

The pessimist who has made his money and is not interested in making any more should hoard his funds, and retire to gloat over them. He would then be out of the other fellow's way who did have ambition enough to help prosperity and prosperity by helping build up his community.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK TO BE OBSERVED IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

To school officials and teachers of Haywood County:

In accordance with a proclamation of the Governor of North Carolina, next week, October 4 to 10 inclusive, is designated as Fire Prevention Week. I wish to call attention to the Governor's proclamation which follows:

A Proclamation by the Governor.

The State of North Carolina has for years led in efforts to reduce fire waste and its attendant loss of life and property. October 4th to 10th inclusive has been designated as Fire Prevention Week throughout the United States, and I appeal to our citizenship who are so familiar with destruction of fire to become vitally interested in this great economic waste.

The fire loss in the United States last year (1924) was more than fifty millions of dollars with more than 17,000 persons killed and vastly larger number crippled and maimed for life. North Carolina's share in this loss was more than five million dollars with 343 lives and hundreds of our people maimed. It is well known that carelessness and ignorance of fire hazard go hand in hand as the chief causes of our great NATIONAL BONFIRE.

I, therefore, urge that the week of October 4th to 10th be set aside as Fire Prevention Week in accordance with Section 6080 of the Consolidated Statutes, which provides that the Governor of North Carolina shall, each year in October, issue a proclamation urging the people to a proper observance:

During this week I also urge that fire drills be held in schools, factories and stores, and that they be continued at regular intervals;

That schools, theatres, churches, public and private hospitals and institutions, factories, store and hotels be inspected to see that every safeguard against fire is provided, and also that exit facilities are sufficient in case of fire;

The local authorities examine their fire ordinances and make them sufficient if they are lacking in any particular.

To this end I urge our citizens to thoroughly co-operate with our Insurance Department, and that every Mayor issue a proclamation. I earnestly request the co-operation of every citizen, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Clubs, Kiwanis and Women's Clubs, and all other civic bodies and the press. As October 4th comes on Sunday I especially appeal to the Clergy and Sunday School Superintendents to bring this to the attention of their people.

Now, therefore, I, A. W. McLean, Governor of North Carolina, in accordance with law, do issue this my proclamation, and I do set aside and designate October 4th to 10th, 1925, as Fire Prevention Week and do urge all the people to proper observance of this week in obedience to the statutes of North Carolina.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this the 18th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, and in the one hundred and fiftieth year of our American Independence.

ANGUS W. McLEAN,
(SEAL) Governor.

By the Governor
Charles H. England,
Private Secretary.

Therefore, in obedience to the proclamation of the Governor, I ask all school officials and teachers in Haywood county to formulate this week a program of exercises to last through the week of October 4th to 10th that will bring the matter of fire prevention and hazard to the attention of school children and through their parents and friends. These exercises may take a variety of turns according to local conditions. The period set aside for the opening exercises may be largely taken up, after a short preliminary, with talks on fire risks, forest fires, accident prevention, reading, speeches, and the like, all looking to the education of the children in the very essential details of fire prevention and the escape of accident hazards.

This is a matter of no small importance, and as was stated in the meeting last Saturday in Waynesville, the teaching of fire prevention is in our curriculum by legislative act, and we cannot avoid the responsibility if we desired to do so.

Let every teacher in the county make next week one of vast importance to every child in the county in learning not only the routine of lessons that naturally come along, but in learning something about fire losses and fire prevention and accidents that will be worth much in years to come.

Very respectfully,
Wm. C. ALLEN, Superintendent
Haywood County Public Schools.

MISSES DENTON AND BUSHNELL ENTERTAIN.

Misses Eleanor Bushnell and Frances Denton were joint hostesses to six tables of bridge at the home of the latter, Thursday afternoon.

The home was artistically decorated with a profusion of early fall flowers. The color scheme of yellow and white was effectively carried out in the score cards and the dainty salad and ice course.

Those enjoying Misses Bushnell's and Denton's hospitality were: Misses Nora Ashton, Eleanor Garrison, Janie Love Mitchell, Caroline Ashton, Braxton Kirk, Fannie Neal, Isabelle Davis, Thomasine Howell, Tibby Hardin, Mag Francis, Elizabeth Quinlan, Dorothy Thomas, Josephine Thomas, Elizabeth Smathers, Lucy Tate, and Wilda Crawford, Mesdames Joe Linger, Curtis Logan, Jr., John Swift, Jr. and Hayes Alley.

U. D. C. MEET.

Mrs. R. N. Barber will hostess to the Haywood Chapter of U. D. C. at her home Friday, Oct. 2. All members of the chapter are urged to be present as chapter has important business to transact.

JIMMY REED ENTERTAINS.

Friday night Jimmy Reed entertained several of his friends with a delightful dance and weiner roast. On the lawn was a very unique cut-off where the guests assembled and roasted marshmallows and weiners.

Those enjoying Mr. Reed's hospitality were: Misses Eleanor Garrison, Virginia Garrison, Edith Mangum, Mary Barber, Dorothy Lane, Grace Hipps, Elizabeth Smathers, Tibby Hardin, Caroline Ashton, and Isabelle Davis, Messrs. Douglas Badgett, Noble Ferguson, Melvin Reeves, Roland Stall, Harry Roth, Howe Crockett, Joe Howell, T. N. Jassie, Jr., William Garrison, Sam Welch, Bob Hardin, Lee Davis, J. P. MEETING OF ALUMNAE OF NORTH CAROLINE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.

On Saturday, Oct. third, at 3:30 o'clock at Mrs. Nannie Persons in Waynesville there will be a meeting of the Haywood County Alumnae Association of the North Carolina College for Women. The meeting will be in charge of the chairman.

Every alumna within reach is urged to attend this meeting. In the history of North Carolina College October 5th has become almost sacred as the date when the college first opened its door under the leadership of the late Dr. Charles D. McIver. All work is suspended on the campus and appropriate exercises are held. The alumnae take an important part, many of them returning to the college for the occasion.

This year all over the state meetings of the local alumnae associations are to be held during Founder's Day week. Literally from the mountains to the sea, and outside the state, alumnae will be meeting together, honoring their alma mater, and enjoying fellowship of one another.

A somewhat unique program has been prepared for all the associations. Messages "broadcast" by letter will be read from members of the faculty—President Foust, Vice-President Jackson, Miss Colt, Dean Cook, Dean Wade R. Brown, Miss Mendenhall, Miss Boddie, Mr. Fornsy, each message telling something about the college life.

Every alumna is cordially invited to come.

"ACHED & ACHED"

Lady Says Her Back "Hurt Night and Day"—Least Noise Upset Her. Better After Taking Cardui.

Wintfield, Texas.—"My back hurt night and day," says Mrs. C. L. Eason, of R. F. D. 1, this place. "I ached and ached until I could hardly go. I felt weak and did not feel like doing anything. My work was a great burden to me. I just hated to do up the dishes, even. I was no-account and extremely nervous."

"My mother had taken Cardui and she thought it would do me good, so she told me to take it. My husband got me a bottle and I began on it. I began to improve at once. It was such a help that I continued it until after the baby's birth."

"I took eight bottles and I can certainly say that it helped me. It is a fine tonic. It built me up and seemed to strengthen me. I grew less nervous and began to sleep better."

"I can certainly recommend Cardui to expectant mothers, for to me it was a wonderful help. ... In every way I felt better after taking it and I think it is a splendid medicine."

Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs.
