

DELLWOOD NEWS.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will serve a chicken supper at the church Saturday night at 7 o'clock. Chicken, vegetables, pickles, pie, coffee, etc. will be served for fifty cents. This will be a real "eat."

There will be a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association at the home of Mrs. Crews Moody Wednesday night.

Miss Fannie Campbell is visiting in Asheville this week.

Mrs. Lloyd Shelton and little son are visiting Mrs. Shelton's brother, Mr. Baxter Russell, of Forney, N. C.

Mrs. Cole has returned to her home in Ohio after spending several weeks with her son, Rev. Mr. Crist.

Mrs. J. A. Ferguson is at home after spending the summer and early fall with her son, Boone Ferguson, in Elmer, New Jersey.

Miss Buford Dunavant and Mrs. Crews Moody motored to Crabtree with a party of Memphis friends Sunday.

We miss a good number of our Dellwood citizens who left during the past week or so for Florida, where they have found work for the winter and spring. Among them are Astor Wells, Amos Moody, General and Robert Gibson, Lowe Jaynes, Wiley, Norman and Ollis Davis, Jack Rathbone and Mack Edwards.

Mrs. Amos Moody, Mrs. Wells and children, Mrs. Mack Edwards and Mrs. Norman Davis expect to leave for Florida this week to join their respective husbands. Several more of our men and their families are planning to go in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell of Canton visited Dellwood Monday.

DEDICATION SERVICE AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Dedication of "Vesper" Lights seven-branch candelabra will be held in Grace Church on Sunday, October 25th, at 7:30 p. m. The Rector will preach on "The Symbolism of Number 7." This handsome gift is the donation of Mrs. D. L. Dunham, of St. Augustine, Florida, in memory of her husband who died on this date three years ago, Oct. 25, 1922.

The Rector will preach at the 11 o'clock service, and Church School will assemble at 10 a. m. in the Parish House.

There will be no early service on Sunday, but on Wednesday, 28th inst., being the Festival of St. Simon and St. Jude, there will be Holy Communion at 10 a. m. on that morning.
