

Beneath the Palms.
 Oh, lonely dead that lie beneath the palms,
 I'll not disturb your dreamless slumber deep;
 Let but my footfall, with the hush of leaves,
 Press to your heart the world's career of sleep.
 Sweet woman were ye once, Chiquita, Rose;
 But lying side by side upon the hill,
 The rivalry that stirred your Spanish eyes,
 Must now forevermore be cold and still.
 Those soft mantillas that your locks o'erhung,
 Vaqueros who crossed streams your hands to press,
 Where are they now? The songs they used to sing,
 The courts they trod, the steeds oft riderless?
 Remember you that dead Hidalgo's eyes,
 His shimmering gay serape 'neath the palms,
 Kisses he gave with vows so lightly made,
 The glowing heart that drew you to his arms?
 Oh, vows so falsely made, so lightly broken,
 Gone are ye now as is the jasmine breath!
 False to both loves, he rode across the border,
 And in his stead came only creeping death.
 Oh, deep, deep, may your long forgetting be
 Of heartaches, strife and passion's bitter qualms;
 The passing years that drift and drift are kind
 And leave you—sleep beneath the drowsy palms.
 —Grace Luce in Munsey's Magazine.

The Night Beautiful.
 Day long the fiery and untyping sun
 Flamed in a sky that glowed like burnished brass;
 Dun stretched the ribbon of the road,
 and dun
 The reaches of the grass.
 In the still willow shadows by the pool
 The cattle herded, standing dewlap-deep;
 And all the beechen aisles, erewhile so cool,
 Were sunk in fervid sleep.
 But with the dusk of vesper ecstasies
 Of the charmed woodthrush stirred our hearts to hope;
 And then there breathed the blessing of a breeze
 Adown the western slope.
 The graceful garden primrose set alight
 Its little globes of lemon-gold and soon
 High in the deep blue garden of the night
 Flowered the great primrose moon.
 And we forgot the garishness, the glare,
 The parching meadows, and the shrunken streams,
 And in the glamor of that magic air
 We gave ourselves to dreams.
 —Clinton Scollard in Harper's Magazine.

HER IDEAL.
 She liked to read about a man
 Who fought and thought it fun
 To go and kill a grizzly bear
 And eat him underdone.
 She loved the cavalier whose plume
 Was foremost in the fight,
 Who flirted with the pretty girls
 And stayed out late at night.
 But when it came to real life
 She tossed her books aside,
 Unto no swaggering hero bold;
 She turned with wifely pride.
 In peace and comfort she decides
 Through life's short span to go;
 Her husband wears a monocle
 And murmurs "Don't you know."

Gossip From Tien-tsin.
 A traveler in Tien-tsin, mentioning the razing of the walls of the ancient city, relates that the work was done chiefly by former boxers, hired for the purpose. Even the children on the streets made life unpleasant for these turncoats by taunting them with a two-line doggerel running as follows:
 From our cakes you ate up all;
 Now you've come to spoil our wall.
 The reference in the first line is to the large flat cakes of unleavened flour, mixed with brown sugar, upon which the boxers were fed by the patrons of the movement in Tien-tsin. To many of them boxerism was merely a means of earning a living.

Dark Hair
 "I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a great many years, and although I am past eighty years of age, yet I have not a gray hair in my head."
 Geo. Yellott, Towson, Md.
 We mean all that rich, dark color your hair used to have. If it's gray now, no matter; for Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color to gray hair. Sometimes it makes the hair grow very heavy and long; and it stops falling of the hair, too.

Rheumacide
 Cures Rheumatism and Sciatica by neutralizing the acids in the blood and driving them out of the system. Is far better than the best blood purifier. All blood diseases yield promptly to this great remedy.
 In the fall-winter of 1900 I was afflicted with Sciatic Rheumatism, so much so that I had to use a cane to assist me in walking. Upon sitting down, there was no ease to my thigh, and the only position in which I could bear my leg was straight out in front of me, while in a reclining position. Realizing the nature of the disease, I began treatment at once, but received no relief until induced by Mr. J. T. Doster, of Greenville, of the drug firm of Bruce & Doster, to take "RHEUMACIDE." I purchased a bottle from them under the guarantee of Mr. Doster that if 3 bottles did not cure me the money would be refunded. One bottle relieved me, and I have had no touch of rheumatism since that time.
 W. A. Palmer, who lived here at the time (1901), was down with a severe attack of rheumatism, and for six weeks had to be turned in bed on a sheet. After the use of several bottles of RHEUMACIDE, he was pronounced well by the attending physician, who is a great believer in the efficacy of your medicine.
 Yours truly, J. L. O. THOMPSON, Editor Pickens Sentinel, Pickens, S. C.

Your Share of Money.
 Have you $28.06? If you have not you are short your per capita share of the money circulation of the United States, and some one has what would be coming to you if the money that is in circulation were equally divided. This statement is made without reservation, on the authority of the latest report of the Treasury Department.
 Another thing; you are entitled to seven cents more than you were one year ago, according to this same report, even though there has been allowed for an increase of 113,000 in the population, for in that same time there has been an increase of more than $65,000,000 in the money in circulation. So you see you are better off than you were a year ago—if you get your dues.
 In fact, you are getting better off all of the time. What has happened since 1879? The population has increased fifty-eight per cent., and the money in circulation has increased 176 per cent., and more than one-half of that increase in circulation has been in gold or in gold certificates.—New York Herald.

Parcel Carrying.
 For many years the endless-belt method of carrying merchandise from place to place in large buildings has been in use and the system has worked well. Its place, however, is being rapidly taken by the telephérique system, in which, on an overhead wire, merchandise may be carried suspended, with electricity as the motive power. One of the uses of telephérique, which appeals to everybody, is in railway stations for carrying baggage.—Baltimore Eun.
