Ex-Senator M. C. Butler.

Dyspepsia is Often Caused by Catarrh of the Stomach—Peruna Relieves Catarrh of the Stomach and Is Therefore a Remedy for Dyspepsia.

Hon. M. C. Butler, Ex-U. S. Senator from South Carolina for two terms, in a letter from Washington, D. C., writes to the Peruna Medicine Co., as follows:

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine, besides a good tonic."

CATARRH of the stomach is the correct name for most cases of dyspepsia. In order to cure catarrh of the stomach the catarrh must be eradicated.

Only an internal cathartic remedy, such as Peruna, is available. Peruna exactly meets the indications. Peruna is sold by your local druggists. Buy a bottle today.

Close Questioning.

In recalling incidents connected with Virginia politics some years ago a prominent Virginian recently related to a Washington man an account of an investigation of election frauds in the lower section of the State. In the course of the proceedings it developed that the ballots in an important precinct had not been sealed after the final count, thereby being exposed to fraudulent practices. The chairman of the investigating committee closely questioned the election judge as to why the ballots had been neglected.

"Could you not obtain any nuclei-
"No, sir."
"Could you not procure some sealing wax—some shoemaker's wax, if nothing else?"
"No, sir."
"Well, then, sir, why didn't you go out into the woods and get some resin? You mean to tell me that there were no pine trees around there shedding tears at your infamous rascality?"—Washington Star.

The cities of Glasgow and Nottingham supply gas to the consumers, and it is sold at fifty cents a thousand cubic feet—about one-half what it costs in American cities. Last year Nottingham made a profit of $120,000 on its gas plant.

FAMINE IN SKILLED LABOR.

Factories Are Offering Higher Wages and Bidding For Workmen.

New York City.—If there has been one lesson more than another impressed upon the industrial world in these prosperous years, it has been the remarkable increase in the recent demand for skilled labor. One hardly appreciates, unless he goes much, or watches conditions, over the length and breadth of the land, how unequal to the real demand are the present supply and the means intended to increase it. The mills in Rhode Island are suffering from a labor famine that has been intensifying for the past six months. It is not only the increase of production in old mills but the building of new ones at and about Pawtucket that has caused the trouble in Rhode Island of which complaint is made. The putting in of mills in a single season calling for 1800 more operatives naturally uses up the labor supply of places of the size of Pawtucket and draws upon the available surplus that may exist in near-by manufacturing centers. Now that waiting lists of skilled laborers have become a memory, it becomes a question of who shall bid highest for the available labor.

COLOSSAL LAND STEALS

Government Defrauded Out of Millions of Acres by Railroads.

Big Sensation Promised in Commissioner Prouty's Report on Union Pacific Deals.

Washington, D. C.—Something distinctly out of the ordinary is expected when Interstate Commerce Commissioner Prouty produces his report on the great land frauds along the Union Pacific road, which he has recently investigated. It is strongly intimated that he will prepare a report which will have to be written on asbestos and that he will give a complete outline of the whole scheme of land frauds that has been for many years inextricably tangled with the processes of mining and transporting coal in Wyoming, Colorado and Utah.

Sensational as they have been, the revelations about affairs in Union Pacific territory are said to have only scratched the surface. Other big railroad and industrial companies are said to present opportunities for just as remarkable developments, involving the looting of the most valuable parts of the public domain. The Denver and Rio Grande in particular, according to report, is likely to come in for some searching inquiry that will prove disappointing if it fails to uncover a situation as bad, or worse, than that in the Union Pacific's sphere of influence. The Santa Fe and the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company are also named as concerns whose relations to Uncle Sam's lands will not bear thorough investigation. All these, it is said, are about as deep in the muck as Union Pacific is in the matter.

These phases of the situation are understood to be slated for attention later in connection with the Interstate Commerce Commission's series of investigations under the Tillman-Gillespie resolution. Largely as a result of these revelations the President has issued an order withdrawing coal lands of the public domain from entry. But it is pointed out that much more drastic measures than this are necessary. To set aside the patents, fraudulently obtained, for millions of acres of mineral timber lands is one of the duties requiring attention.

Every alternate section for twenty miles on either side of the Union Pacific belongs to that system's land grant. This is as if the black square on a checkerboard belonged to the road and the red to the Government, subject to entry. There are almost no country roads through this region, and the railroad company, being extremely unfriendly to private development of mineral resources, easily finds ways to prevent anybody else getting access to the lands it does not own. To get to them it is necessary to trespass on the railroad lands, and that sort of thing is promptly visited with the heavy displeasure of the corporation.

A deal of criticism has been aimed in this connection against the Department of the Interior for its failure to protect the public domain. The department has various agents through the public land country, but they accomplish little, and the success of Commissioner Prouty on his recent investigation was a revelation to some of them. They are largely amenable to local political influences for their appointment, and these political influences are declared to trace fairly up to the management of the railroad. D. O. Clark, president of the Union Pacific Coal Company, is a brother of Senator C. D. Clark, Senator from Wyoming since 1895, and elected to serve until 1911. Commissioner Richards, of the General Land Office, is a former Governor of Wyoming.

Cyrus Beard, a Judge of the Supreme Court of Wyoming, on the stand testified to using $3000 of money provided for him by the railroad company in entering lands which he afterward relinquished to the railroad interests, getting $200 for his trouble. Others didn't get so much; bartenders and gamblers got as low as $3 and $5 for the use of their names in entering property to these coal companies. By these methods the law's provision that a company or association may not secure more than four quarter-sections has been nullified.

ORPHANS STARVED TO DEATH.

Accusations Brought Against Colorado's "Brotherhood of Light."

Denver, Col.—That a dozen children entrusted to the "Brotherhood of Light" by the Denver authorities have starved to death is the direct charge of the State Humane Society. The Brotherhood of Light colony is located on a ranch 400 miles southwest of Denver, and is in charge of C. C. Rose and others, who send solicitors over the State. By these funds to support the orphans, which it makes a specialty of boarding. Of twenty children in the custody of the brotherhood only seven are alive. The older of the survivors are in the fields with the adults.

It is charged by Secretary E. K. Whitehead, of the State Bureau of Child and Animal Protection; H. B. Kerr, agent of the bureau, and Dr. M. H. Sears, of the State Bureau of Health, that all the children who have died at the colony have starved to death as a result of the peculiar diet, on the vegetarian order, that the religion of the brotherhood prescribes for all who would be "holy."

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies; those of known quality and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the natural functions unnecessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup, in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming constipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, but recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers; those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article; but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine article.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the
