Gaston Spurling of Cleveland county was here for a few days recently looking at some Polk county farm lands under the guidance of J. F. Williams, our real estate and insurance agent.

The organ committee of the Baptist church reported last Sunday that the fund for the new organ was about completed and that the organ would be installed within a short time. They hope to have it in time for the protracted meeting, the date of which has not been set.

Rev. T. C. Croker told his congregation at the Presbyterian church first Sunday that the debt upon the church had been removed and the dedication would take place shortly. He was anxious to have it during the Christmas holidays, but some of the members thought it best to postpone the dedication until spring so the matter has not as yet been decided.

POPLAR GROVE PEOPLE.

Personals from the Green River Section.

Poplar Grove, Dec. 12.—Rev. J. D. Gibson preached an interesting sermon at Lebanon last first Sunday. It was his first sermon on the new conference year. He and your correspondent dined at Rev. W. W. Womack's that day.

Jerry Jackson is the fond grand-parent of a baby girl. The little lady's parents, V. Hyder and wife, are very proud of her.

Miss Minnie Womack contemplates visiting her sister, Mrs. R. Hardin of Forest City.

Coroner George Smith made a business trip to Columbus first Monday.

A young man of our section went to The Springs Sunday "on business." Came back late, or rather, early and very hungry. He made a raid on the pantry and ate up a whole hog's head.

Rev. J. E. Womack, who is attending Rutherford College, says in a letter to his mother recently, that Rev. Edwards, often spoken of as "Uncle" Edwards, who served this work several years ago, has suffered a stroke of paralysis.

The public school teacher at this place feels sure she will be successful in securing new seats for the school room. The seats will be presented by all the young men of the community and will cost the county nothing. We also hope to be able to place a rural library in our school. We are doing everything we can to make the work a complete success. We wish the other teachers and pupils great success and always remember them at the Throne of Grace at our morning service.

Of course you pay your money. But you get your money's worth. For what does money mean to you? When Rocky Mountain Tea's on earth? A. L. McMurray Columbus, E. E. Missildine Tryon.

MILL SPRING NEIGHBORHOOD DOTS.

Mill Spring, Dec. 12.—Miss Lillie Thompson of this place and Liphus Collins of the Pearidge section were married recently. We wish them a long and happy life.

Our pastor, Rev. J. D. Gibson, and family are at home again, having attended annual conference. We welcome him among us. They have won many friends in Polk county who appreciate having them stay another year. We wish them health, happiness and success.

Mrs. Rufus Edwards died on Tuesday morning from pneumonia after a short illness.

GRAHAM-STEARNES.
