Ancient Money. The oldest banknotes in the world are the "flying money," or convenient money, first issued in China in 2697 B. C.

One writer tells that the ancient Chinese banknotes were in many respects similar to those of the present day, bearing the name of the bank, the date of issue, the number of the note, the signature of the official who issued it, and its value, in both figures and words.

On the top of these curious notes was the following philosophic injunction: "Produce all you can; spend with economy." The note was printed in blue ink on paper made from the fiber of the mulberry tree.

RECIPES.

Chili Sauce.—Twelve large ripe tomatoes, 4 ripe peppers, 2 onions, 2 tablespoons salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon cinnamon. Peel tomatoes and onion. Chop all together fine and boil one and a half hours. Two cups sharp vinegar improves it.

Canned Raspberries.—Fill can full carefully, put on rubber and cover. Put wire over top, but do not snap the other wire down. Put into deep kettle or boiler on rack, fill with cold water and let boil. The berries will be whole. Sugar can be added if liked. Raspberries are fine for pies canned the same way.

Southern Corn Bread.—One and three-quarter cups of white cornmeal, one-half a teaspoon of soda and the same amount of salt, one egg beaten stiff and one cup of buttermilk. When all mixed together, add two table-spoons of melted butter and bake in a hot greased pan until a rich brown.

Flannel Cakes.—Take two and a half cups of flour and four teaspoons of baking powder and a pinch of salt and mix together, add two table-spoons of melted butter and bake in a hot greased pan until a rich brown.

Snowball Pudding.—Take 2 teacups of rice, boil until tender. Pare and core 12 large sour apples leaving the apples whole. Fill the apples with rice and pour it around the outside. The one in a separate cloth and drop in boiling water. Serve quite hot with cream and sugar or any sauce desired.

PRESIDENT SENDS THREE MESSAGES TO CONGRESS

Panama Canal, Navy Personnel and Land Law Discussed.

WHAT HE SAW ON ISTHMUS

May Complete Work in Eight Years—Will Try Chinese Labor—Conditions Excellent—Promotion in the Navy.

Washington, D. C.—Three special messages—on Panama, Naval Personnel and the Public Land Laws—were forwarded to Congress by President Roosevelt.

The Panama message was by far the most important. The striking feature of it is the President's emphatic decision to employ Chinese labor in digging the canal. He emphatically commends the United States to coolie labor in these words:

"From present appearances we shall, in the main, have to rely for the ordinary unskilled work partly upon colored laborers from the West Indies, partly upon Chinese labor."

Divided into topics, the President entered into these discussions: The visit of the President to Panama, 27,280 words; advocacy of the passage of the Naval Personnel bill, 1000 words; advocacy of amendments to the Public Land laws, 1800 words.

Mr. Roosevelt's message on his visit to Panama proved an entertaining narrative, detailing the personal experiences and observations of Mr. Roosevelt during his investigation of the work in the canal zone. It contains twenty-six photographs of work in the canal taken while the President was on the ground. It breathes a strong spirit of optimism regarding the ability of the United States to complete "the giant feat of the ages."

The President is particularly severe on these Americans who have criticized the work at Panama without first going to see it. He says: "I feel for them the heartiest contempt and indignation, because in a spirit of war and dishonesty and malice they are trying to interfere with and hamper the execution of the greatest work of the kind ever attempted and are seeking to bring to naught the efforts of their countrymen to put the credit of America on the giant feat of the age."

President Roosevelt makes these recommendations and announcements:

A seven headed commission is a "jumpy affair" and there should be one Commissioner, with heads of departments under him.

Employment of the best engineers in the country as consulting engineers should be expressly permitted.

Dr. Gorges is to be made a member of the commission if the law as to its composition remains unchanged.

The President thinks Panama Canal will be completed in eight years.

Says it is no concern of American workmen whether alien black men or alien yellow men dig canal.

Says Jamaica negroes are poor "diggers," and he will try Chinese labor as experiment.

Canal work will be let out in contracts by Government.

Asserts there is no evidence of frauds or irregularities.

Mr. Roosevelt's message on the naval personnel is a strong argument in favor of immediate consideration of the bill prepared by the board convened by the Secretary of the Navy.

He urges legislation that will raise officers of the line to reach the grades of captain and rear-admiral at less advanced ages and will give them more experience and training in the important duties of those grades.

The President is convinced that unless something is done to rectify, by judicious legislation, the condition of the higher personnel the future of the navy will be gravely compromised.

In dealing with the question of public lands President Roosevelt makes several recommendations. He tells Congress grave wrongs are committed under the Timber and Stone act, that the Homestead act is being isolated and that public lands containing timber and minerals are more rapidly than ever getting into the hands of corporations and monopolists.

He suggests that the leasing of grazing lands be placed in the hands of the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Roosevelt also informs Congress that the forest reserves of the country are worth one billion dollars, and the stumpage value of the timber alone is worth $200,000,000. The forest service will soon be self-supporting through the sale of timber scientifically cut, and he recommends that the Secretary of the Treasury have power to advance $5,000,000 on bonds secured by the forest reserves, to bear interest and be paid back beginning in ten years.

Molasses is Scarce. New crop Louisiana molasses is merely nominal in most markets. No one seems to want it, and the quality is poor and the price unusually high. Advice from the South indicate that the present crop besides being a short one will be all in within a few weeks, and that there will be sufficient demand from manufacturers, distributors and consumers to consume it immediately.

Cigarette Smoking Fatal. Julius Persky died at Hammond, Ind., as a result of cigarette smoking. He smoked from sixty to 100 cigarettes a day.

Repression Has Succeeded. Advances from Warsaw, Poland, say that the Russian Government's policy of repression has been successful.

Imports in Ohio. Ohio has 10,000,000 pounds receiving state aid.

The Right to Live.

At the age of fourteen Harold's father gave him a ten thousand-dollar motor car.

Harold was delighted. He ran it about for several months to the exclusion of everything else. After this Harold wanted another. He got it.

Next year Harold went in for motor boats. In a couple of years more, however, they had worn themselves out.

At twenty Harold was married. Divorced at twenty-two.

To sum up: At thirty there was nothing else for him to do. He had done every pleasure. And there were no new ones being invented.

Suddenly, however, Harold's parents died and left him fifty millions. He was about to despair there being no use for the money, when suddenly he realized that the world at large hated and despised him.

"At last," said Harold with a sense of supreme satisfaction, "I am happy once more. I have a new sensation."—Life.

TORTURED WITH ECZEMA.

Tremendous Itching Over Whole Body—Scratched Until Bled—Wonderful Cure by Cuticura.

"Last year I suffered with a tremendous itching on my back, which grew worse and worse until it spread over the whole body, and only my face and hands were free. For four months or so I suffered torments, and I had to scratch, scratch, scratch until I bled. At night when I went to bed things got worse, and I had at times to get up and scratch my body all over until I was as sore as could be, and until I suffered excruciating pain. They told me that I was suffering from eczema. Then I made up my mind that I would use the Cuticura Remedies. I used them according to instructions, and very soon indeed I was greatly relieved. I continued until well, and now I am ready to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to any one. Mrs. Mary Metzger, Sweetwater, Okla., June 28, 1905."

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the strictest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, indigestion or biliousness, and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it in plain English, a full and complete list of the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicine. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents, and that they are made from native medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for women, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the use of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.
