AMENDED ANTI-JUG BILL HAS EASY SAILING THROUGH SEN-ATE.-MANY BILLS PASS.

Raleigh.

The senate listened for half an hour to arguments by Senator Majette and others on the Majette bill for a constitutional amendment to allow a system of rural land segregation between the races, as endorsed by the State Farmers' Union, and then voted 17 to 15 against the bill on second reading, killing the bill for the session.

The vote was first postponed and then Mr. Majette urged reconsideration of this with the fatal result for his bill.

The senate passed without opposition the bill agreed upon by the joint conference committee as a substitute for the anti-jug bill that the senate had amended to require a referendum and the measure went to the house, where its passage is assured. This means that prohibition legislation is terminating in a bill that will limit deliveries of "spirituous liquurs" to one quart within 15 days to one person and not over five gallons of malt liquors with not over 5 per cent alcohol within a 15-day period when the bill had been passed without amend-

Senator White, who had offered much the same bill early in the contest over the original bill in the senate, took occasion to especially thank Senator Gilliam and Senator Nash for their support of the substitute bill in the conference committee and on the floor of the senate. Both had opposed the original bill and worked for the referendum amendment that finally worked its defeat through the senate amendment.

The House concurred in the Senate substitute for the bill amending the pharmacy law and the amendment to the bill to give peanut pickers a lien on peanuts picked.

The Senate passed the bill to increase the fees of solicitors on scale of running to $25 instead of $20, it being estimated that the bill will give an increase of about 30 per cent in the revenue of these officers. There were numbers of amendments offered and voted down, notably one by Mc-Leod to strike out his senatorial district and, failing in this, to exempt Robeson county. An amendment by Senator Muse requiring reports of expenses of solicitors, was adopted and this immediately concurred in by the Education Bill in House.

The house took up the omnibus education bill prepared by the committee to generally amendthe public school laws and more particularly empowering the board of education of any county to raise the age limit for compulsory school attendance to 14 years. The provisions of the bill were exappropriations.

Senate Bills Become Law.

Bills passed included: Omnibus justice of the peace bill; amend the law as to mortgages and torts; amend the library commission act; amend the revisal as to the oyster industry; authorize the governor and commissioner of Agriculture to regulate commerce so as to prevent spread of footand-mouth disease among cattle; amend the law as to regulating security selling companies; protect and regulate agricultural fairs; authorize depositions in recorder's courts for defendants; amend the form of marriage licenses so as to show divorce when obtained and grounds, in marriage of divorced persons.

Pass Bachelor Tax Bill.

In spite of the terribly congested calendar and great flood of work, the house took time for a bit of horseplay in passing a facetious bill credited to Benton of Columbus imposing a tax of $2 on bachelors for support of the home for fallen women, with an amendment by Mickle of Forsyth providing a fine of $1 to 2 on all married men who stay out after 10 o'clock at night, this to benefit the fund for woman suffrage. It passed applicable to Columbus county only.

Regulate Importation of Cattle.

The Senate took up the bill of Senator Miller to authorize the Governor and Commissioner of Agriculture to stop or regulate the importation of feedstuffs and cattle into the state at their discretion and passed it with little discussion, the purpose being to be in position to take prompt and effective steps to prevent or stay invasion of the foot-and-mouth disease which has recently appeared in Vir-

Wooten's Will Was Brief. Kinston.-Exactly three years before the date of his funeral, on February 28, 1912, to be exact, the late Emmett R. Wooten, speaker of the house of representatives, made his will. The document is one of the briefest on record, contains only about 85 words in holograph and was written on a memoranda sheet bearing company. The will was found among his papers, and names his widow, Mrs. Nannie C. Wooten, as the executrix. She is the sole beneficiary. Mr. Wooten was the owner of considerable personal property and real 'estate, although he was not excessively wealthy. Clerk of the Court Heath turned over the letters to Mrs. Wooten as executrix.

Cleveland Drainage Costs Less. Shelby-One of the few instances in which public work is carried on at a less expense than was anticipated is in the draining of Buffalo Creek and its tributariec. The district was formed about two years ago and a bond issue of $108,000 voted. The drainage commissioners have been faithfully working on the reclamation of the land with two big dredge boats for a little over a year. Chairman A. H. Cline says the work will be completed in two months and there will be left something like $25,000 in the treasury which will go to paying the interest on the bonds.

Buncombe Has Big Corn Club.
