Many Messages at White House.
Washington.—President Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt, whose engagement to be married was announced, were the recipients of congratulatory messages from all parts of the United States and from the representatives of foreign governments. Telegrams came to the White House in such numbers that an extra force of operators and clerks was needed to handle them. Many were read by the president and Mrs. Galt together. Count von Bernstorff was one of the first to send congratulations.

Paint?
There are two good reasons for painting often-enough or even too often. One to look prosperous; two, to be so.
Nothing does one more credit or gives one more credit than paint, supplemented of course by good work with it; and paint costs nothing.
True the first cost is $5 or $6 a gallon put-on; but saves more than in the property; saves it from slow going down, not always slow, it drops with a jump when water gets in on wood and iron.
Dry wood and iron cost nothing, kept dry by paint.
Better paint when it needs it. Paint never goes down in the sense of being more profitable next year.

Horrible Accident

Jervy Pace a well known citizen of Tryon, operating a public service automobile, and Richard Bomar a colored porter at Missildines were instantly killed Friday afternoon, at Gurley's crossing near Tryon, by the Carolina Special. A negro by the name of Outlaw was very badly injured, but will recover. Pace was driving the two negroes in his car on the Landrum Road and attempted to cross the Southern track in front of the Special. The auto was struck full on and carried the distance of five telegraph poles. Pace and Bomar met instant death. Outlaw was clinging to the cowcatcher, when the train stopped.

The negro, Outlaw was removed to a Spartanburg hospital, Wednesday. He is in a precarious condition.

Jervy Pace

Godshaw-Merrick Nuptials

What was without a doubt the most brilliantly appointed home wedding that has ever taken place in the city occurred at noon today at the beautiful new home of Mrs. John Landrum, on Hampton avenue, when her sister, Miss Adyleen Godshaw, became the bride of Ensign Anson Angus Merrick, of the United States Navy.

The Landrum home was beautiful in handsome ferns and cut flowers, a color scheme of pink and white being used throughout. In the ceremony room a curtain of beautiful southern smilax was draped from the ceiling in center of the room, forming a lovely arch in which a beautiful altar of white satin had been improvised. Behind this curtain handsome ferns closely banked, formed a screen for the orchestra. On the beautiful satin altar a tall gold cross was bounded on either side by handsome gold candelabra, while at the sides of the altar were placed tall gold and white vases of handsome pink roses. The white satin kneeling cushion with an immense white satin bow completed a beautiful setting for the impressive ceremony.

In the dining room the handsome mahogany table bore a centerpiece of sweetheart roses, lilies of the valley and forget-me-nots in a handsome gold and china stand, an heirloom which has been in the family for generations, while at either end of the table were placed beautiful silver candelabra with white candles. Appropriate place cards bore tiny slips, while the attractive favors were tiny brides bouquets and silver slippers.

Just before the ceremony the orchestra played Priests March from Athalie F. Mandelsohn and Lieberstrum by Liszt. The bride entered with the groom and the ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Norwood of Tryon, N. C.

The bride who is one of the most beautiful young women ever married in Greenville was attractively gowned in a blue traveling suit with hat and all accessories to match, and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Godshaw, the brides mother was gowned in silver grey charmeuse with silver lace trimmings, and wore a corsage bouquet of valley lilies, while Mrs. John Landrum wore white lace over pink taffeta and carried pink Killarney roses.

Only the immediate family witnessed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Merrick left in an automobile for Oldpoint. They will make their home for the present in Philadelphia.

Miss Godshaw is a daughter of the late Judge Godshaw, of Kentucky and a sister of Mrs. John Landrum, of this city. She is a blonde of exceptional beauty and possesses a charming personality that wins friends as it makes acquaintances.

The groom is ensign on the U. S. S. Michigan and an honor graduate of Annapolis.—Greenville Piedmont.

Thermal Belt Apples

The fruit season is coming to a close at the Lindsey fruit farm. Apples and pears are being gathered and packed. Mr. Lindsey's specialty is grape culture, but he has not neglected other fruits. His apples are of choice grade, highly colored and fine flavor. The trees bear heavy and are very hardy. It seems most every kind of fruit can be produced to a point of perfection, in the thermal belt.

'Possum Hunt

A party of young people, chaperoned by Mr. Small, from Evanston, Ill., enjoyed an old time possum hunt in the mountains, Tuesday night. Lester Wilson was master of the hounds. The party was composed of Misses Little and Babbit of Cherokee Lodge, Messers Clayton Pace, Oliver Andrews and Wesley Jones. Two 'possums were captured.

Lowest Crime Record.

Chicago.—Closing of saloons in Chicago on Sunday for the first time in 44 years resulted in the day passing with the lowest crime record in the history of the police department, Chief of Police Healey announced. Out of the 7,125 saloons in the city only 28 were found to have violated Mayor Thompson's closing order. Most of the violations were of a minor character, only one saloon-keeper being arrested. There were only 16 arrests made for drunkenness compared with an average of 243 for months.
