Candies For Giving

Homemade candies are a great gift for an open house, for a reception because they are easy to make and you have taken the extra trouble of making them yourself. During the holiday season particularly, they are useful in having no food for the day's work.

This recipe for Minted Walnuts comes from a book of homemade candy recipes, from no-cook varieties to divinity and candies on a stick. You can obtain a free copy of the book, called "Dandy Homemade Candies," Write to: Home Service Department, Best Foods-Corn Products, 18 East 52 Street, New York 18, New York.

Minted Walnuts
 1/2 cup light Karo syrup
 1 cup sugar
 1/4 cup water
 30 marshmallows
 1/2 cup walnuts
 1/2 cup walnuts

Combine corn syrup, sugar and water in a saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture boils. Continue cooking to soft ball stage (235 F.) or until a small amount of mixture forms a soft ball when tested in very cold water. Remove from heat; quickly add marshmallows and essence of peppermint. Stir until marshmallows are dissolved. Add walnut halves. Stir until walnuts are well coated. Pour onto waxed paper. Separate walnut halves, while still warm. Makes 1 1/4 pounds.
