A "Souper" New Year's Supper

The school crowd's in a holiday whirl, cram-full of excitement and fun. Greeting the New Year gaily caps the holiday round of parties. A late soup and sandwich supper in fancy dress will satisfy hearty young appetites. Topped with pats of butter, colorful Spicy Tomato Soup teams well with favored sandwiches (big for the boys, dainty morsels for the girls): Festive Green Pea Soup, with the unexpected tang of orange, is another bright and appetizing choice. Best of all, young misses can make either gala beverage quickly with canned condensed soups.

SPICY TOMATO SOUP
Combine 2 cans (10 1/2 ounces each) condensed tomato soup and 2 soup cans water in saucepan; add 1/4 teaspoon basil. Heat thoroughly, but do not boil. Serve from heat-proof tureen or other container. Top each serving with pat of butter. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

FESTIVE GREEN PEA SOUP
In saucepan, stir 2 cans (11 1/4 ounces each) condensed green pea soup until smooth; gradually add 2 soup cans water and 2 teaspoons grated orange rind. Heat, stirring now and then. Garnish each serving with thin orange slices. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Trial and Error

creates a confusing situation.

I would like to take this opportunity at the close of the year to sincerely thank you, my good public, for the many courtesies shown us during the past year.

We have made mistakes, and we regret them, but you have been kind to us and we have had a very good year.

To our advertising customers, to our correspondents, to our many various news sources we say thank you from the bottom of our hearts, and we wish all of you a very, very Merry Christmas.
