Scout Troop 45 Camped

A two day encampment with the emphasis on advancement was held this past week-end for the Scouts of Troop 45, Rose Hill. Those participating in this week end of training and fun were: Jerome Herring, Clifton Jerigan, Alfred Ward, Don Buckner, Mike Wilson, Steve Casteen, Warren Ramsey, Bill Hall, Keith Hatcher, Ronnie Casteen, Bill Butler, Robert Surratt, Clarence Brown, Jr., David Savage, Tracy Lanier, Jr., Samuel D. Herring, Tommy Orangle, Douglas Faircloth and Rickie Jones.

Walter J. Thomas, Jr., Scoutmaster of Troop 45 was assisted in carrying out the purpose of this week end of training by Reid Casteen, Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 45, Jerome "Archie" Herring, Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 45 and Reverend Lester La Prade, Pastor of Mount Zion Presbyterian Church, Rose Hill.

The training began with the Scouts being required to set up a regulation camp site which included garbage disposal pits, fire place, supply of fire wood and the proper erection of tents. Upon completion of setting up "camp" the scouts prepared a meal for themselves with the emphasis on cleanliness and proper method of preparation. On Saturday morning, the scouts arose early to begin training by taking a short hike. Training in signaling, judging distances that one cannot cross and heights that one cannot climb, cooking for oneself and a buddy accord to a pre-arranged menu and how to carry, use and prepare a sharp instrument, such as an ax, for camp use was the order of the day.
