The February art exhibit at Home Federal Savings in War-saw has been removed and will be replaced this week by an exhibit from the St. Johns Sales Gallery of Wilmington. The na-ture of this exhibit is not known at the time, but it is presumed that it will consist mainly of oils. These will be on exhibit for the month of March and should be one of the most outstanding exhibitions at Home

CHAPEL HILL - David Benjamin Golson, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Golson of Ashe-ville, North Carolina has been named State Easter Seal Child for 1966. He was appointed by L. H. Mount, Durham, presi-dent of the North Carolina So-ciety for Crippled Children and Adults (The Easter Seal So-ciety)

During the Easter Seal Cam-paign, which covers the month of March and ends on April of March and ends on April 10, Easter Sunday, David will bring a message of hope and a promise for an independent future for crippled children who are helped by Easter Seal contributions. He will greet Easter Seal volunteers as the guest of Mrs. Dan K. Moore, the state's first lady, at a Tea on March 17, St. Patrick's Day.
David is 13 years old and has attended Camp Easter in the Pines, at Southern Pines, a camp for crippled children owned and operated by the Easter Seal Society. He cites his experiences at Camp Easter as the most exciting of his life, saying: "I loved the swimming, the nature studies, the arts and crafts! The food was wonderful and all the people were so ful and all the people were so nice to me,"

He also constantly talks of the outstanding beauty of the setting of the Camp and when visited by Easter Seal state officers recently, he immediately said he wanted to attend two sessions of the camp next summer.

He is a student at the Asheville Orthopedic Hospital and according to his teachers is a bright, responsive responsive boy who

Lighting Fixtures Accent Furnishing

Current trends in lighting fixtures tie in with current trends in all home furnishings. rends in all home furnishings.

"Early American, which has been consistently popular, is now appearing in a more sophisticated way, with more formal styles and elegant adaptations," reports Julius Friedman, vice president, Progress Manufacturing Co.

"Some 19th century designs of France and England are much in evidence. The Span-much in evidence. The Spanish influence, so strong for several seasons, is now more prominent than ever."

Lighting fixtures reflect all these trends, and thus serve to accent home furnishings more effectively.

Among the new lighting fix-ture designs for spring '66 are dramatic crystal chandeliers, star-cut beveled glass panels in lanterns and pendants, cast chandeliers and matching wall and ceiling fixtures, with rich amber or smoke glass globes.

Sheffield Gets Recognition In Award Program

Charles J. Sheffield of Sheffield Motor Company, Warsaw, has qualified for special recognition in Ford Motor Company first National Dealer Traffic Safety Award Program.

The dealership this week received a plaque and commendation from Fletcher N. Platt, manager of Ford's traffic safety and highway improvement de-

"Ford Motor Company is proud of your achievements, and of the achievements of the entire dealer body, in promoting traf-fic safety," Mr. Platt's com-mendation read. "We appreciate the time, energy and other resources you are devoting to this vital subject and hope that you will continue and intensify your efforts."

Ford began its program last fall as an annual means of recognizing Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers who help im-prove traffic safety in their communities.

Dealers were urged to act in four specific areas; assure that customers are fully informed about the benefits, operation maintenance of safety equip-ment on vehicles; provide cars for driver education; support sound vehicle inspection programs, and encourage adoption of better local and state traffic
