David S. Savage who received the God and Country Award and the Star on the past Sunday in the Rose Hill Baptist Church.

David Savage Receives God And Country Award

David Savage received the God and Country Award in Scout ing during the morning worship service at the Rose Hill Baptist Church on May 22. During the singing of the first hymn two scouts of Troop 45 in Rose Hill marched in carrying the American and Christian flags, followed by the other scout in the troop. After assembling at the front of the sanctuary, Eagle scout Bill Butler led the scouts and congregation in the pledges to the flags. Scout Jimmy Jerome led the troop in repeating the Scout Oath.

Scoutmaster Jay Thomas was recognized and he presented the candidate for the award. The Rev. Hugh Ross Williams, pastor, gave a brief talk on the requirements for and significance of the God and Country Award. He pointed out that this coveted award is given to a scout upon the completion of at least one year of specified study and service relating to the Christian faith and doctrine, especially as it relates to the scouts own denomination and local church. The requirements in each of the three stages of work are grouped under the following headings: Christian Faith, Christian Witness, Christian World Outreach, Christian Citizenship, and Christian Fellowship. The award is given by the scout's local church.

Mr. Williams presented the candidate his medal. David was then asked to present miniature medals of award to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Savage. After a prayer by the minister, the scouts took their places at the front of the church and joined in the remainder of the worship service.

Career Opportunities Available

Career opportunities in Navy department offices located in Washington, D. C. are being offered to young women in this area, according to a civilian Navy representative, who will be interviewing typists, stenographers, and secretaries in this area.

Miss Vera Williamson, who will be located at the Navy Recruiting Office, Federal Building, 301 Green Street in Fayetteville, through June 10, 1966, will discuss employment possibilities with interested persons. Cavanaugh Returns From Viet Nam

Staff Sergeant Ralph R. Cavanaugh returned to Rose Hill Tuesday night after a 12 months' stay in Viet Nam.

Ralph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Cavanaugh of Rose Hill, was with the 62 50th Combat Support Group stationed at Tan Son Nhut Air Force Base near Saigon. After a thirty day leave spent with his parents in Rose Hill, he will report for duty at Lowery AFB in Colorado. Ralph has spent nine years in the air force.

Staff Sergeant Cavanaugh says the monsoon season was just beginning when he left Saigon, which means they will have heavy rains every day lasting from one hour per day to all day long. The year there contains only two seasons as opposed to our four seasons. They have the wet season and the dry season. The temperature there very often reaches 120 to 125 degrees. This made the 49 degree temperature in San Francisco seem really cold to Ralph.

Sergeant Cavanaugh says the standard of living in that area is not up to the standard known among the middle class in America. Many of the natives are employed at the Air Force Base.
