There will be a Christmas Cantata at the Baptist Church on Sunday night, December 18, at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Civic Club Party

The Womas Civic Club held its December meeting with a Christmas party and covered dish supper on Monday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Quinn. The Christmas motif was carried out. There was a Christmas tree and gifts for all. The supper was delicious and everyone had a very enjoyable time.

Family Night Observed

The Woman's Auxiliary of the First Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church met Monday night, December 5 at the Community Building. Family night was observed with twenty-one members and their families present.

A delicious picnic style supper was served before the meeting began.

The meeting opened by singing "Silent Night" followed with prayer by Mrs. R. M. Brown. The Rev. R. M. Brown read the scripture and made a talk. The devotional closed with a song, "Joy to the World."

The roll was called and names were drawn for a secret pal for the coming year.

There was a Christmas tree with gifts for everyone. These were given out, opened and admired by all.

Mrs. Eliza Culbreth presented Mrs. R. M. Brown a gift from the Auxiliary.

Fruit baskets were fixed and taken to shut-ins and elderly people in the community.

Ladies Auxiliary FWB

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Carrol Street Free Will Baptist Church met Wednesday night, December 7, with Mrs. Frances Hall, for their Christmas meeting. There were eighteen members present.

The meeting opened with a song, "Joy To The World," followed with prayer by Mrs. Leona Dunn.

The program, Traditions of Christmas, was led by Mrs. Mattie Cavanaugh. Others taking part were Mesdames Frances Hall, Florence Dall, Janie Cavanaugh, Emma Lee Howard, Essie Pope, Grace Malone, Louise Whaley, Mary Ann Howard and Nelda Malone.

The group also sang "Silent Night" and "O Come All Ye Faithful."

During the business meeting minutes were read and the roll called by the secretary, Mrs. Mary Ann Howard. It was decided to give two elderly members who are ill a gift at Christmas. The president reminded members to save Christmas cards with religious pictures to be sent to the missionary school in Mexico.

At the end of the business meeting gifts were exchanged and names were drawn for a secret pal for the coming year.

Mrs. Emma Lee Howard closed the meeting with prayer.

The hostess served refreshments of cup cakes, potato chips, Christmas candies and drinks.

Reception Honors Mr. Pope and Miss Godbold

On Thursday evening December 8, Mrs. Hazel Pope and her daughter, Becky were hostesses at a reception honoring bridal couple-elect Mr. Harold Melvin Pope, Jr., and Miss Sue Godbold at their home in Magnolia.

For the occasion Christmas arrangements of white and green with gold accents were featured in the living room and dining room. Elsewhere in the home dried arrangements and potted plants added decoration.

Upon arrival, Miss Godbold was presented a corsage of white carnations. The hostess also presented the couple with a gift of China in the chosen pattern, a sugar and cream set, which was displayed beside small golden Christmas tree in the dining room.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Otha Lee Holland of Warsaw, who introduced them to the receiving line. Standing in the receiving line were Mr. Pope, Jr., Miss Godbold, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pope, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Godbold, parents, of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pope, Sr., grand parents of the bridegroom-elect and Mrs. Foy Boney, grandmother of Miss Godbold. Each lady in the receiving line wore a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Nellie G. Rivenbark of Warsaw directed guests to the dining room for refreshments. The dining table was covered with gold velvet and net, and centered with a lovely arrangement of white mums in graduated sizes and greenery, flanked on each side by burning white tapers in silver candleabrum. Miss Becky Pope assisted by Miss Connie Revelle of Warsaw and Miss Sherry Powell of Magnolia presided over the refreshment table, where country ham biscuits, cheese stars, butter mints, and individual bridal cakes were served. From one end of the table bridal punch was served by Mrs. Hubert Tucker of Magnolia.

Goodbyes were said to the seventy-five guests who called during the evening by Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Mathis of Warsaw.
