GERALD T. WEEKS
GREAT LAKES, ILL. Nov. 9 -- Seaman Recruit Gerald T. Weeks, 23, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Weeks of Route 1, Faison, N.C., has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.
In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.
In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service,

If you would like to give a Christmas or hostess gift that will be appreciated for its taste as well as its thoughtfulness - stir up a batch of Coconut Fudge Drops. Made creamy-smooth with Carnation's evaporated milk, the fudge is prepared with just five minutes' cooking time. Economical evaporated milk has many other uses too. It makes soups and stews creamier and meat loaves juicier. And it whips just like cream for use in chiffon desserts and whipped salad, but costs much less and has fewer calories.

COCONUT FUDGE DROPS
(Makes about 2 pounds)
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup (small can) undiluted valvatised evaporated milk
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups miniature marshmallows (about 4 ounces)
1 1/2 cups (1 1/2 six-ounce packages) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1 teaspoon each: grated orange peel, vanilla
1 cup flaked coconut
1/2 cup dark seedless raisins
Combine butter, evaporated milk, sugar and salt in saucepan over medium heat. Bring to a boil. Cook 5 minutes, stirring constantly. (Start timing when mixture starts to "bubble" around edges of pan). Remove from heat. Stir in marshmallows, chocolate pieces, orange peel and vanilla. Stir vigorously 1 minute (until marshmallows melt and blend). Stir in coconut and raisins. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto a buttered cookie sheet. Cool.

Be Festive With Potato Fondant

What can a cook flavor, color, stuff into dates, cloak with chocolate, or mold into myriad shapes to suit any season or celebration? Very simply, a potato fondant. From a quickstep base of milk, Danish flavor margarine, and instant whipped potato flakes, the Borden Kitchen fashioned this sweet vanilla-flavored confection that enhances so many decorations and blends. The savvy homemaker will make lots of fondant, some to keep, some to send as gifts.

Potato Fondant
(Makes 2-1/4 lbs. candy)
1/4 cup water
1/4 cup milk
1 tablespoon Danish flavor margarine or butter
1/2 cup Borden's instant whipped potato flakes
1 teaspoon almond extract
1/2 cup ground or finely chopped toasted almonds
4-1/2 cups (1 pound) sifted confectioners' sugar

In a 1-quart saucepan combine water, milk, and margarine or butter; bring to a boil. Remove from heat; add potato flakes. Stir until all liquid is absorbed. Refrigerate until completely cooled. Turn into large bowl. Stir in extract, almonds, and sugar. Refrigerate - one hour. Roll candy between two sheets of waxed paper to a thickness of 1/4 inch. Cut into desired shapes with cookie cutters. If desired, decorate with colored sugars, walnuts, or chocolate shot.

Sweets to the Sweet

you wouldn't go wrong by calling most current meat prices a bargain. Still, in a nation which claims world leadership in many areas of endeavor, Americans will have to hustle some before they can top the enthusiasm of meat eaters in other parts of the globe, particularly in the red meat department.

Most of the competition is south of the equator. New Zealanders, for instance, consume an average of 226 pounds of red meat annually. In Australia it's 219 pounds, and 221 pounds in Uruguay. Americans, meanwhile, post a red meat consumption level of 175 pounds a year - a poor fourth in world rankings for beef and veal. In pork, we're fifth.
