

Pink Hill News

PERSONALS

Judy Turner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Turner was home for a reunion during Christmas. She also visited friends in Winston Salem. She attends Greensboro College where she is a junior. She would like to be in Religious Education.

Marsha Turner, the younger daughter, attends Peace High School at Raleigh. She was also aboard for all of the Christmas festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grady enjoyed their visitors Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Measley from LaGrange, Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Barwick and their children Ivy, Joe, Jim, Mrs. W. L. Bialock enjoyed a nice Sunday evening dinner with Mr. and Mrs. John Grady.

Miss Mary Anna Grady took a flying rip to New York last Tuesday. Mrs. Ann Nesbit, a friend from Virginia, who attended summer school with Mary Ann in that state, met her in New York. They had a wonderful time together.

Papa Wade, one of the most delightful young oldsters I've ever met, left Pink Hill this week to return to his home in Tennessee. Brewer Drug will miss his bright shiny face and his spirit.

Mrs. Arthur Grady is in Mc Cain Hospital. Maybe we could all remember her with cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Faison Smith entertained guests Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Outlaw.

Thursday night, Mrs. Warren Maxwell, Mr. Jim Byrd, Mr. Durham Grady, Mr. Chris Coom attended the forty and eight dinner at Kinston. This is an exclusive branch of the American Legion. During World War One this title came into being. The railroad cars were so crowded, the men complained that each one held forty horses and eight men.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Swinson had a quite New Years Eve with Mr. Swinson's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Swinson, who will be graduating in February from East Carolina. Mrs. Z. M. Williams visited her grandson in Hatteras during the holidays. A nice thought for 1967 - Life by the inch is a cinch, but by the yard it's hard.

CHURCH NEWS

The College students were in charge of the Sunday morning service at the Methodist Church. Betty Brewer and sister, Bobby and Ann Tyndall, Rachel Smith did a wonderful job. Eleanor Hill played the organ beautifully.

Rachel Smith gave a glowing account of her life at college. She feels that she should be witnessing more for Christ in casual conversations in the dorm on campus, wherever she is. She personally should do something about the dry, stereo type chapel services. She challenged us all to witness for Christ.

Bobby Brewer told about her frustrations in college, but she also pointed out that when God closes one door, he opens another. She knew that she could do the job with the Lord's help.

New Years Eve Dance

Deep Run Community building was very much alive New Years Eve! The teenagers and college students threw a dance. "The Wanderers" again played some great rock and roll music.

At twelve midnight firecrackers were going off in the fire place and outside as we all jumped in fright.

Betty Hatch that great little dancer and Nancy Turner, who is as good as Betty, decorated the hall with colored crepe paper and balloons.

Brewer's Office Party

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Brewer gave their employees and families a delightful dinner Thursday evening at the sea King Restaurant. Before dinner was served our host, hostess had an auction for us. We were given play money with which to bid for the very funny grab bags. It was such clean fun.

Our hats are off to this fine and generous couple who do many many kind deeds for people in the community.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank all my friends and relatives for the many kindnesses shown me and my family during my recent hospitalization and convalescence at home. The food, flowers, cards, prayers and remembrances of all kinds were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Marlow Wins Final Red Carpet

The main topic of conversation around Tennie's Beauty Shoppe in Whiteville these days was the owner's recent good fortune.

Mrs. Ernestine Marlow, the shop's owner and manager, had her name drawn from more than 14,000 competitors during Waccamaw Bank and Trust Company's finale to its Red Carpet Reception Days promotion.

Mrs. Marlow's winning coupon was drawn last Friday afternoon in the lobby of the Whiteville branch, to which coupons from the 13 other WB&TC were sent.

Her coupon selected by Master Whitney Prease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Prease, entitled Mrs. Marlow to the grand prize offered at the conclusion of Red Carpet Days - wall-to-wall carpeting for her entire home.

juvenile department), Mrs. Mallard and Mrs. Spate. The juveniles had their Christmas party Tuesday night, December 26, 1966, in the home of Mrs. Ambrose James. The house was beautifully decorated with pine and holly. Christmas gifts were exchanged. The guests were served eggnog and parfait.

Excitement and disbelief were among the emotions registered by Mrs. Marlow when she was advised by Chairman of the Board B. L. Nesmith of her victory. The odds had been against her winning, she felt, for she had only entered a single coupon in the contest which was open to all customers of the banking chain.

She expressed appreciation for the bonus holiday gift, but said she has not yet chosen the color or style of carpeting which Waccamaw will provide for the Marlowe home.

The bank's Red Carpet promotion commenced in early September and concluded with the awarding of the grand prize Friday. One week earlier each of the branches held its own drawing from locally-submitted coupons, with respective winners receiving a room-size carpet of their choice in color and design.

Chairman Nesmith expressed "absolute delight" in customer response to the 90-day promotion.

"The campaign may be over," remarked an official of the bank, "but we will continue giving each of our customers the red carpet treatment."

Eastern Star Christmas Party

The Eastern Stars held their annual Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Merritt, December 27. The daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt of Atlanta, Georgia were the guests of honor. The house was decorated beautifully. Cake, coffee, nuts and fruits were served. Games and the singing of carols were held in contest. Mr. Ed Dudley Monk was the winner and awarded the prize. Hostesses were Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Monk.

According to a forecast made by Edison Electric Institute, the nation's investor-owned electric utility companies expect to have in 1970 nearly twice as much power-producing capability as they had in 1948.

YOUR SAVINGS BOND QUIZ

Q. What is the advantage in exchanging my E Bonds for H Bonds?

A. There is no absolute "advantage" of one bond over the other, since both earn the same rate of interest. If you need additional current income, H Bonds can help you. They are sold at face value and interest is paid by Treasury check every six months.

Q. I still don't understand how the new interest rate on Series E Bonds works. Is there a simple explanation?

A. Yes, the bonds you buy today reach maturity in seven years. That is the equivalent of a 4.15 per cent return, compounded semi-annually, for the full period. It means you will get back four dollars at maturity for every three you invest now.

Q. Can I name by 10-year-old son as a co-owner on Savings Bonds and gain a tax advantage for his education?

A. No, the plan requires purchasing the bonds in your son's name, either alone or with either parent as beneficiary. Income tax liability usually can be shifted to the child by filing a Federal return in his name, at the end of the first year of bond purchases, listing the increase in bond value as income to him. That initial return establishes the intent and no further returns need be filed, as long as the child's total annual income is less than $600. No tax will be due, if the bond interest, plus other income, comes to less than $900 ($600 personal exemption, plus $300 standard deduction). Be sure to keep a copy of the initial return, establishing the intent. It may be needed in later years as possible proof that the interest had been reported.
