"The Good Old Days"

Along 1911 about 57 years ago these three little folks played with their Billy Goats while big sister watched across the fence for their welfare, probably to see that the baby didn't get butted down by the goat. He looks capable of doing so.

ner and Ken have returned from their vacation trip to Richmond and Williamsburg, Va. In Richmond they visited with Mike Moncreur, who was best man in their wedding. Little daughter Stephanie visited her grand parents, Rev. and Mrs. A.R. Teachey in Fayetteville while her parents and big brother were away.

Miss Teachey Honored

Miss Linda Teachey, bride-elect of August 31st, was honored with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Daniel J. Fussell on Thursday night the twenty-second of August. Serving with Mrs. Fussell as hostess were Messdames W.H. Fussell, Reid Fussell, Sr. and J.W. Blanchard.

On arriving the honoree, Miss Teachey, was presented with a corsage of white carnations and her mother, Mrs. P.C. Teachey, was presented with a pink lily bouquet.

Two contests concerning marriage and honeymoon were played and winners were Mrs. Norman Teachey and Mrs. Duane Fussell. Both winners presented their prizes to the bride to be.

Homemade pound cake and peach ice cream were served by the hostesses, who were assisted in serving by Miss Lisa Fussell.

Present were the honoree and her mother, Messdames Dennis Ramsey, Granville Sheffield, J. C. Coover, Sr. B.G. Teachey, L.A. Wilson, Jimmy Riley, Norman Teachey, Misses Harriet Lanier and Lisa Fussell and the hostesses.

In those days, and for many years following, a billy goat was a favorite pet for little folks. These children probably had a wagon with shafts and a full harness to hitch him to, and took turns riding up and down the sandy streets that Rose Hill used for a thoroughfare. Many happy hours were spent with Billie, and his pen was right in the back yard. He was petted, combed and brushed, fed well and sometimes we hope-given a bath—but a stranger had better beware, or his owners might sick him on you if you didn't watch out.

Who are these children? You probably will know big brother. Baby brother, now has a group of grandchildren. The middle sized boy, (Yes he's a boy, too, in spite of the apron and the bangs and bobbed hair!) reads the Duplin Times each week and has said that we would never find a picture of him to put in the paper. We like this one a lot, buddy. If Big Sister just took her hand off her mouth there would be nothing to guess, for she's a dead give-away, isn't she?

Scouts Explore Mountains of N. C.

Rose Hill Explorer Scouts Post 245 has returned from a most interesting exploration trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina. Making the trip were Scouts Clarence Brown, Jr. Kenneth Smith, Larry Smith, Jeff Carter, Tracy Lanier Jr. Alfred Ward and Dennis Knowles. Adult Scouts making the trip were Marvin Carter and Horace Ward. Scout leader Marvin Carter reports the trip as follows:

"On Thursday morning, August 15th the above members of Post 245 loaded their camping gear in a pick-up truck and headed West. They left Rose Hill at 6:30 A.M. and traveled by way of Raleigh, Durham and Greensboro to Asheville and at about 4 p.m. they arrived in Maggie Valley.

"After setting up camp and preparing and eating their evening meal they went into Cherokee, N.C., and enjoyed seeing the dramatic pageant "Unto These Hills".

"Early Friday Morning the boys were up for a big breakfast of Bacon, Eggs, etc. Then they went to the chair lift and rode up Ghost Mountain to Ghost Town and saw the gun fights in the street, dancing in the saloon, Boot Hill, the local church.

"For lunch they went to "Colonel Sanders and bought a barrel of chicken, drove to Cherokee and into the Great Smoky Mountains to a public picnic area where the fried chicken and other goodies soon disappeared.

"Higher and higher they went until they reached Clingman's Dome, over 6,000 feet high. Everyone viewed the country from the top of the observation tower.

"Back to the campsite in Maggie Valley, they went for the evening meal of beef stew with vegetables and after supper played Putt Putt Golf at the local course, and then turned in for the day.

"Saturday the scouts wished to stay in camp, and the local area around it. They spent the day at the Putt-Putt Course back in Ghost Town and swimming in a mountain creek. Late Saturday afternoon they went by car and truck to an area called Cove Creek. Here they saw mountains and mountain life in the rough. Cabins with cobble-stone chimneys, small plots of corn and burley tobacco, they traveled on gravel roads with hair-pin curves. Then back to camp for a fish supper and an evening of fun.

"Sunday morning saw the fellows up early for breakfast of bacon and eggs. They then broke camp and took off for home by Route 278 to the Blue Ridge Parkway, which took them through Mt. Pisgah National Forest, which was very interesting to everyone. They went through several tunnels and stopped at many of the look-out areas to view the beautiful scenery. They went to Asheville and then to Chimney Rock on Route 74. There they proceeded to the top of the chimney and explored their surroundings and getting, also, a good view of Lake Lure from there.

"On their way again, they travelled to Charlotte, Monroe, Lumberton, Elizabethtown and White Lake, finally arriving in Rose Hill again by 9:30 p.m. With four days of fun and exploration behind them they were glad to be at home again. Each boy said he enjoyed the trip and expressed his thanks to everyone who had a part in making it possible. Mr. Kenneth Farrior furnished a car for the trip and Marvin Carter the pick up truck."

Sympathy To The Brock Family

The Pasture Branch and Dobson Chapel Community was saddened by the death on Saturday of a life long member of their community, and friends over the county and many other places regret to hear of the death of Mr. Cyrus Brock.

We offer our sympathy and friendship to the bereaved family.

Mr. Brock was a veteran of World War I who returned safely to his old home and has been a respected and well-loved man in his neighborhood since then. He was kindly and helpful to all who needed him. An old-fashioned North Carolina gentleman who believed in the old fashioned virtues. Besides a host of friends he leaves four children, thirteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren, all of whom loved him and will remember him with appreciation.

Mr. Brock, a member of the Dobson's Chapel Baptist Church had been in the Fayetteville Veterans Hospital for almost a month before he died. He was buried in the family cemetery close to his house. Our W W I veterans from Duplin have one more member to assemble at revellie in the other world.
