The meeting closed with a social hour, with the hostess serving refreshments carrying out the Washington's Birthday motif.

Defensive Driving Course

by Mrs. Mae H. Spicer
Home Economics Extension Agent

Mrs. Eimore Brinson, Safety Leader of the Cedar Fork Extension Homemakers Club looks over the list of Cedar Fork Citizens that have signed up for the Defensive Driving Course to be held Monday nights, March 17, 24, 31 and April 7.

The course will be conducted each of these nights from 7:30-9:30. All drivers of Cedar Fork Community are urged to attend the first session whether they have previously signed up or not.

Mrs. Brinson urged, "With seven traffic fatalities in Duplin County already in 1969 this eight hour course could be extremely important to all of our drives in Cedar Fork Community."

Cedar Fork Extension Homemakers Club

Sixteen homemakers of the Cedar Fork community are participating in a special series of interior decorating classes conducted by a home economics agent of the Agricultural Extension Service. The homemakers above are looking over color schemes they have developed. The first class was on period styles of furniture, and the second class, the ladies studied furniture arrangement. A study of color in the home was made during the third class period. The last class in the series will be on accessories in the home.

Smith - Sanderson Wedding

The marriage of Miss Donna Jean Sanderson and Thomas Earl Smith was solemnized Sunday March 2nd at 4:00 P.M. at the Beulaville Freewill Baptist Church. The vows were spoken before an altar decorated with pink hibiscus trees and flanked by seven-branched tree candelabras holding pink lighted tapers. Bows of pink satin ribbon marked the reserved pews. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Bruce Dudley, pastor of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill Sanderson, Beulaville, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Earl Smith of Pink Hill.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal long sleeved gown of white satin with Alconon lace trim. The bodice had a portrait neckline and the chapel train attached at the neckline was also trimmed with Alconon lace. Her two tiered veil of bridal illusion fell shoulder length from an encrusted circulet of lace and seed pearls. The bride carried a cascade of pink and white roses and lillies of the valley, showered with bridal ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Beth Smith, sister of the bridegroom, Misses Linda Hill and Jennifer Rhodes. They were attired in formal long sleeved gowns of blue crepe and carried single long steamed pink carnations. Their headresses were matching bow with circular veil.

Little Miss Yvonne Jarman, cousin of the bridegroom, served as flower girl. Her gown was white crepe similar to those of the bridesmaids. She carried a basket of pink and white roses, pom-poms and pink and white carnations. Her headress was a matching bow with circular veil.

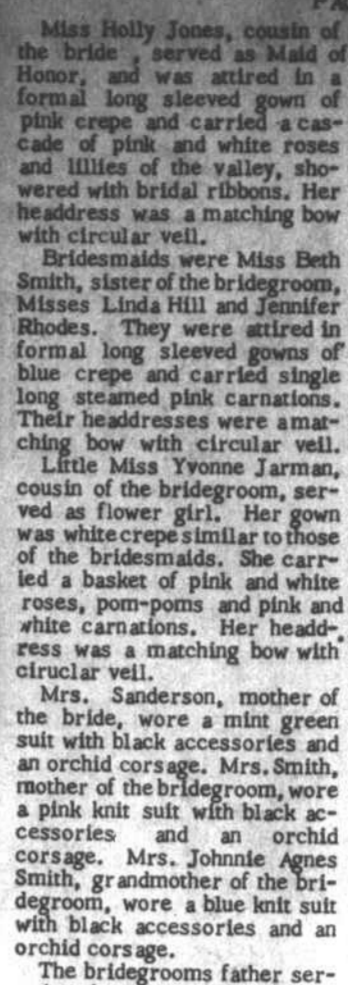

Mrs. Sanderson, mother of the bride, wore a mint green suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Smith, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pink knit suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Johnnie Agnes Smith, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a blue knit suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Jennis Sanderson, brother of the bride and Laurie Jackson, cousin of the bridegroom. Master Michael Dew was ring bearer.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Edgar Wells, organist. Mrs. Alfred Dew, soloist, sang "I'll Never Walk Alone", "Whether Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer" as part of the benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Following a wedding trip to unannounced points the couple will reside at Rt. 2, Pink Hill, N.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are both employed at National Spinning Co., Warsaw.

hostesses at a lingerie shower in honor of Miss Donna Jean Sanderson at the home of Miss Jones. Miss Sanderson was presented a corsage of white carnations on arrival.

Wedding cookies, peanuts and punch was served to the approximately 15 guests.

Miss Sanderson received many lovely gifts.

There were fewer serious injuries on North Carolina highways during 1968 than during the previous year.

CAKE-CUTTING

Following the rehearsal of the Sanderson-Smith wedding on Saturday evening March 1st a cake cutting was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Beulaville Free Will Baptist Church.

The brides table was covered with a lovely white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white roses and lillies of the valley. A three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was at one end of the table. Punch was served from a crystal bowl at the other end of the table. Butter mints, nuts and wedding cookies were also served.

Hostesses for the lovely affair were Mrs. Joseph Jones, Mrs. Earl Brown, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Raybourn Brown.

Approximately seventy guest attended.
