

MRS. CHARLES HAROLD MANNING

Linda Hill and Chas. Manning Wed

Miss Linda Kay Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Hill, of Mount Olive, route 1, became the bride of Charles Harold Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Manning of route

1, Ayden, Sunday, February 18, at 3:30 in the afternoon in the Long Ridge Free Will Baptist church near Mount Olive.

The Rev. Luther Swinson officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Music was furnished by Miss Carol Hines, pianist, Miss Debbie Holmes, vocalist.

The church was decorated with three candelabra, palms and baskets of white gladioli, mums, and red carnations and pompons.

The tride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned along princess lines with scooped neckline and calla point sleeves. The built in train was chapel length and carried a bouquet of white pompons and featured red carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. John Currin Howard, Jr., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Manning, sister of the groom, Miss Emily Southerland, and Miss Anne Cooper Parker, of Raleigh, former roommates. They wore red formal gowns with empire waistlines and A-line skirts, and satin bows with streamers to the floor.

The bridesmaids wore red bows with matching veils and they carried bouquets of white pompons, red feathered carnations, and baby's breath.

Willie Earl Manning of Wilmington, brother of the groom, was the best man. Ushers were Jimmy Cannon, Tony Dail, Dennis Skinner, all of Ayden, and Ronnie Parks, of Seven Springs, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a red knit suit with navy accessories, and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a green knit suit with black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Little Miss Currin Heward, niece of the bride, and Dwight Hill, II, nephew of the bride, were miniature bride and groom. Michael Hill, nephew of the bride, and Leraine Howard, niece of the bride was the ring bearer and flower girl.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Oak Ridge Community building. Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a light green dress with matching accessories and a white coat. Upon their return they will live in Kaiserlautern, Germany.

The bride is a graduate of North Duplin High school and Hardbarger Business College in Raleigh. The bridegroom is a graduate of Ayden High school and Lenoir Community College.
