Mrs. Oscar Redwine and children, Kathy, Janet and David went to Fayetteville last Thursday to see the James Langs in their new home and later attended the Barnum & Balley Circus.

Mrs. Viola W. Quinn accompanied Miss Amie Catherine Rhodes to Kinston one day last week. Mrs. Ella Quinn. Smith went with them as far as Deep Run to visit friends.

Mrs. Alton Newton visited relatives in Kinston one day recently.

Mrs. Russell Guthrie spent Tuesday night in Chocowinity with her parents.

Mrs. Lawrence Southerland is visiting her son's family in Marietta, Ga. She will visit other relatives in Alabama before returning to her home here.

Mrs. G.V. Gooding and Mrs.
N.B. Boney visited Mrs.
Boney's mother, at the Thomas Rest Home near Dudley last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barton made a business trip to Whiteville last Friday.

ville last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank LeNoir made a business trip to Jamaica

Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Stroud went to Kinston with Mr. Ben Stroud last Monday where Mr. Ben was admitted to the Lenoir Memorial Hospital for eye surgery on Tuesday.

Mrs. Colon Holland made a husiness trin to Clipton last business trip to Clinton last

Mrs. E.C. Tyndall and Mrs. N.B. Boney accompanied Mrs. Colon Holland to an Eastern Star meeting in Beulaville one night recently.
Mrs. Marie Williams Tiedle-

Women Of The

The regular monthly meeting of the Women of Grove Presbyterian Church was held in the Lucy Jolly Educational Building on last Monday night with the president, Mrs. William E. Craft presiding. The Devotional and Program was given by Mrs. Troy D. Mullis. She showed a Film on Japan. There were 13 members and 1 visitor present. Plans were discussed for the Special Bible Study which this group will hold in March, and April jointly with the Women of the Smith's Church. The Women of Grove Church will go to Smith's in March and they will come here in April. The study will be taught by their pastor, The Rev. Troy D. Mullis,

4-H Club

The Kenansville 4-H club visited Whaley's Rest Home with flowers for each room.

The Club collected a total of $152.87 for the Heart Fund, With Paul Phillips wining the ham the group raffled off.

The group has now completed the Health Contest they were in and would like to thank the town for their help.

for their help. Debbie Heath

Friend of ours admits there are two sides to every question -- his own side and the wrong side.

It's easy to pick a winner at the racetrack. Just don't take any money with you.

Duckling: an animal that grows up as it grows down.

The human brain is a wonderful thing. It starts working the moment you are born, and never stops until you stand up to speak in public.

Sign in a tall girls' shop: "We Carry Everything for Tall Girls Except Tall Men."

Tall or short, we are always ready to serve you at BREWER DRUG CO. IN PINK HILL. There is a BIG ONE CENT SALE coming. Watch for it! You can come on in and lay away until sale starts.

Miss Williamson Weds In Afternoon Ceremony

Fredericksburg, Va. United Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding today of Miss Barbara Ann Williamson and William Eugene Black.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F.
Williamson of 300-68 Harrison
Road The bridegroom's pare

Road. The bridegroom's parents are Mr, and Mrs, William J. Black of Duncansville, Pa.
Dr. Charles T. Boyd officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony and Harold Abmyer was or-

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory satin featuring lace sleeves with chapel points and a lace scalloped portrait neckline. The gown was of sheath styling with an overlay of re-embroidered alenconlace and a chapel train attached to a large satin bow. Her headpiece was a high crown of rosettes and seed pearls with veil of ivory illusion. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and frenched carnations.

Mrs. Leslie Corder of Dum-fries, sister of the bride, was marron of honor. She wore a peau de sole gown in rose pink with empire styling accented by bands of lace and velvet ribbon at the waist. She carried a bouquet of white fuji mums and pink carnations.

Serving as best man was John Dively of Duncansville, Pa., brother-in-law of the Pa., brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Mike Morning of Laurel, Md., and George Liebal of Altoona, Pa. A reception was held in the church social hall. After a northern wedding trip, the couple will reside in Richmond, The bride is a graduate of Spotsylvania High School and before her marriage was em-ployed by Continental Traflways in Washington.

in Washington.

The bridegroom was graduated from Hollidaysburg High School in Pennsylvania and American School of Broadcasting. Washington. He is employed by American Telephone and Telegraph Company in Rich-

Mrs. Black and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Williamson were former residents of Ken-ansville,

Eastern Star

Mrs. Inez B. Chestnutt Worthy Matron and J.B. Stroud, Worthy Patron of Kenansville Chapter # 215, Order of the Eastern Star were in their respective stations on last Tues-day might for the bi-monthly meeting. After the Ritualistic opening and business session, a program on "George Washing-ton" was presented by Mrs. Louise K. Boney assisted by Mrs. Viola W. Quinn. A soc-ial hour followed the closing ceremony. The hostesses were Mrs. Edna E. Brinson and Mrs. Florence B. Brown. They served Cherry Yum-Yum and served Cherry Yum-Yum and coffee to the 16 present. Members were reminded that the next stated meeting will be on March lith, at which time the

Mrs. Andrew Miller; Jones Ch-

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller raised $55.00. Regina Moore, daughter of Mrs. Audry Moore-raised $20.00. Pat McKoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKoy raised $5.00 plus a $2.20 contribution. The pastor presented this first, second and third place winners with silver spoons, and presented the other contestants with a box of Valentine candy. The Pastor Rev. C.W. Wright, officers, Chairman of the Program, Mrs. Mary B. Middleton and her co-workers, members and friends wishes to thank and congratulate each

March is Red Cross month, and once again, Red Cross desperately needs your help. Last year, the cost of helping dis-aster victims climbed higher than the year before. And the expense of providing assistance to almost a million servicemen rose with the ever-increasing

The Kenansville First Bap-tist Church was more than gr-ateful to the Five little Heart

Sisters and Brothers who contributed $775.20 toward the fund

Pictured are Leta Fennell,

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.P. Fennell and Harold Hueston, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Harold Hues-

ed $108.75, Deirdre and Rodney of the Educational Building.

demands for Red Cross aid. This years needs are far greater. Red Cross needs your help, and your cooperation, plus your contribution. Support your servicemen.---Support your Red Cross services.

Duplin County's goal for 1969 is $6,000 which is $1,000 more than the quota assigned us last year. Attorney Grady Mercer who is the county Fund Manager announces his co-workers as follows: Albertson, Mrs. Clyde Po-tter; Bethel, Mrs. John L. Grady; Beautancus, Mrs. Jasper Brock; Beulaville, Mrs. Frank Sawyer; Bowden, Mrs. Bill Lloyd; Cabin, Mrs. Robert Ray Thomas, Calypso, Mrs. Alex Sam Bostic; Faison, Mrs. C.R. Little; and Friendship, Mrs. Eva James,

Garner's Chapel, Mrs. Helen Waller; Harper-Southerland, Mrs. Alvin Stroud, Hallsville, annual election of officers will be held. Following the election of officers plans will be made ton, raised together $404.00. Wanda Batts, daughter of Mrs. Geraldine S. Batts and Bruce Dixion III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dixion Jr. raised $155.00. Sharon and George William, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thedore Williams rais-contestant and their parents.

Miller, son and daughter of apel, Thurman Stroud; Kenans-ville, Mrs. Russell Guthrie; Long Ridge, Mrs. Oarrie Scott; Magnolia, Mrs. Fred Archer;

Outlaw's Bridge, Bill Sutton;
Oak Ridge, Charles Ivey; Pleasant View, Miss Mary Ellen

Chambers; Piney Grove, Mrs. Hazel Stanley; Rose Hill, Mrs. Jimmy Robinson; Sarecta, Mrs. Carey Williams, Smith's, Mrs. Hilda Grace Smith and Mrs. Ruby Gray Smith; Teachey, Mrs. Jack Stuart; Wallace, Dewey Mills and Mrs. Myree Harrell; Warsaw, Charlie Sheffield; Negro Division, Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Pierce of Rose Hill who will announce their helpers

Wollons Guest Of FFA

and closing cere-

On February 20, Mr. Well-ons, Duplin county's assistant extension agent, was the quest of the James Kenan FFA meet-Kenneth Savage produced. Mr. Wellon's talk was about the uses of these crops, areas where these crops are produced and the competition against each other.

Other activities carried on during the meeting were the Green Hands receiving their Green Hand pens. Mr. Danny Ray Brock, president, conducted the

PAGE 8 THE DUPLIN TIMES-PROGRESS SENTINEL MARCH 6, 1989

ing. His talk was about the different oil crops that can be

BUSINESS

FRIGIDAIRE APPLIANCES

RCA TV's & RADIOS

SHERWIN WILLIAMS

PAINTS

WE SERVICE WHAT WE SELL BANK FINANCING Phone 568-8421

"A Home Owned Business" PINK HILL, N. C. Leighton H. Turner Sr. & Hugh C. Turner

6 Belk Beery

Now there's a name worth repeating . . and remembering because John Meyer speaks your language.

Talk trivia if you wish-but be wearing our important Dacron ployester/cotton vest suit-tailored by John Meyer-with set-in belt, military pockets and brass buttons. In a choice of colors,

MISSES SIZES $36.00

The shirt-seersucker voile safari with high pointed collar and flap pockets.

MISSES SIZES $11.00

safari bag carries the whole thing off.

Tell it to the oracle-in our bright and versatile Greek stripling of a skirt-web-belted and buckled in chrome.

MISSES SIZES $13.00

Pick up a batch of John Meyer's cotton knit shells to wear with the skirt-and lots of other things-in all the best colors.

MISSES SIZES $7.50

Discuss the classics-communicatel

BELK-BEERY IN WILMINGTON - BETTER FASHIONS-SECOND FLOOR

Here's a word for people who still hang their clothes out to dry:

Suffering with the sniffles is no fun. And lugging clothes to and from the clothesline in bone-chilling winter weather doesn't help:

We'd like to suggest a remedy. It's called a flameless electric dryer. It works when the sun doesn't.

ance dealer right away.

are ready to wear with little or no ironing. Stop the sneezes before they start this winter. And enjoy 365 day-a-year drying weather. See your electric appliAnd while you're there, pick up your free copy of the new booklet "Weather the do's and don't's of electric

Carolina Power & Light Company