es, introduced the coaches present, who in turn introduced their teams. Coaches present were Charles Hinson, Rotary team; Roger Phillips, Jaycees team; Jack Boney, Lions team;

Kenneth Guy, National Spinning team; and Emmons Garner, the American Legion team. There were also several assistant coaches present.

Following the introductions of the coaches and players, the president presented Mayor Ed Strickland, who made appropriate remarks and led the group in the "Little League Oath". An impressive flag-raising ceremony was carried out by a group of Scouts from the local unit of the Tuscarora Council, Boy Scouts of America. The president then led in a salute to the American flag.

At 2 P.M., the Warsaw Little League playing season was opened by Mayor Strickland's throwing the first ball over the home plate and the game between the Rotary and American Legion teams got underway. The Rotary team with Wirt Jon-man defeated Dwight Kirby.

RCC Pro Hank Saunders announced the next dance at Rockfish would be May 17th. It will be the annual spring dance.

Terry Sanford High won the sectional golf tourney held at Camp Lejeune Monday of this week. Grainger High was second and Wilmington and Hoggard High were tied for third place. Wallace-Rose Hill finished sixth and James Kenan seventh.

"Our Father, we in golf all have special need of guidance, for we sometimes are tempted to wonder whether the game that draws us together is not in part a work of the devil."

es pitching, scored a victory with 5 to 1 win. Dean Gasser scored the first home run and the only American Legion score.

At 4 P.M., the second game was played between the National Spinning and Jaycees teams. The National Spinning team, with Bonnie English pitching, scored a victory with a 16-5 win. Michael Graham of the Jaycees team, made the second home run of the day during this game.

This Saturday, at 2 P.M., the Lions and Jaycees teams will compete. At 4 P.M., the National Spinning and the American Legion teams will play. The public is urged to stand behind Warsaw Little League and to encourage the coaches and the players by attending the games. After the closing of school games will be played Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, 8:30 to 5:30 P.M.

With Out Boys

Matthew L. Jordan

Fort Riley, Kansas--Specialist Fourth Class Matthew L. Jordan, 21 son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Jordan, Rt. 1, Box 223, Kenansville, returned to Fort Riley recently following participation in Exercise REFORGER I whereby the 24th Infantry Division was flown to the Federal Republic of Germany to take place in NATO maneuvers.

The maneuvers took place January 29 to February 4, but the troops returned to the Kansas post during March because it was necessary to place heavy equipment back in storage. This equipment is left in Germany for the 24th Infantry Division--the Army unit that was formerly stationed there and is now on ready recall at its time to support the NATO forces.

United States Air Force C-141 Starlifter Aircraft were used to take the 24th back to Germany and return to the States, an 8 to 10 hour trip from Forbes Air Force Base, Kansas, to Germany.

The 24th Division soldier is a member of Company A, 724th Maintenance Battalion.

Donald R. Bradshaw

VALPARAISO, Fla. -- U.S. Air Force Staff Sergeant Donald R. Bradshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dary R. Bradshaw of R.F.D. 2, Rose Hill, has completed specialized training at Eglin AFB, Fla. prior to his assignment in Southeast Asia.

Sergeant Bradshaw, a heating specialist, attended the RED HORSE (Rapid Engineer Deployable, Heavy Operations Repair Squadrons Engineering) school at the USAF Tactical Air Warfare Center.

The sergeant will be assigned duty with the 820th Civil Engineering Squadron at Da Nang AB, Vietnam.

He attended Magnolia (N.C.) High School.

Wallace Homemakers Club

The Wallace Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Alex Bryson at 2:00 o'clock P.M., April 28, 1968. The second Vice Pres., Mrs. Hannah Williams presided. The devotion was conducted by Mrs. Bryson. Club leaders reported; Mrs. L.D. Washington, on international affairs, gave an enlightening report. Her topic "The Child Care Throughout The Nation", pictures and brochures of Canada, S. America, and the U.N. were shown. The health leader, Mrs. Florence Ingram passed out cancer material and reported on a film shown at the office.

The Craft leader, Mrs. H.R. Dobbins reported on the workshop and gave a demonstration on making a tote bag. A workshop is planned for a week later at the home of Mrs. Hubert Wilson. One new member was enrolled. The meeting closed with the Club Collect, Refreshments of Pineapple cake, cookies, pudding, crackers, candy and punch were served, and gifts were exchanged.

Durable Feeders

Liquid fertilizer storage and applicator tanks, when fabricated of nickel stainless steel, may last more than 20 years. The tough alloy resists corrosion in many fertilizer solutions.

The Bunker Shot Impact: Warsaw's Mrs. Maxine Jones observes the most difficult shot in golf...the bunker or sand trap. Maxine says, "make the club strike the sand two or three inches behind the ball and let the club go right through." Mrs. Jones and hubby Bob can be seen often playing golf at Duplin Country Club.

NOTICE--DCC LADIES--Please come to the DCC next Tuesday. A special meeting will be held for the election of officers and setting up of your luncheons and league play for the summer.

James Kenan High golf team came in three strokes out of going to the state finals Monday at Camp Lejeune. Vic Owensby fired a 77, Billy Potter 78, Doug Smith 79 and Mitch Reese 84 in the sectional playoffs at Jacksonville. Wallace-Rose Hill finished sixth and will move to the state finals at Chapel Hill.

Rockfish CC Pro Hank Saunders urges all golfers men and women to qualify for the "spring tournament" before May 17th.

Duplin Pro Marvin Watson urges all women of the club to make plans to attend the "ladies clinics" scheduled at DCC for each Tuesday at 10:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M.

The reason some women won't play golf is that they have been told you use irons every time you play.

Congratulations are in order for young James Kenan High football star Bennie Wilson. Bennie, son of Mr. and Mrs. B.K. Wilson of Warsaw, has accepted an appointment to West Point. Young Wilson, one of the outstanding scholastic athletes in the nation, finishing the top 75 out of 15,000 finals.

Rockfish CC's flashy David Wells fashioned a 42-37-70 qualifying score getting ready for the annual spring tournament scheduled soon in Wallace.
