Miss Brown Is Wed To Mr. Lonnie Powers Thigpen

On Sunday, August 17, 1969, at four o'clock in the afternoon in the Beulaville Baptist Church, Beulaville, Miss Sheila Annette Brown became the bride of Mr. Lonnie Powers Thigpen. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony of simplicity and beauty was the Rev. Eugene Carmichael.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ellis King of Route 5, Jacksonville; Mr. Thigpen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Thigpen, of Route 2, Beulaville.

The vows were spoken before an altar setting of the rostrum draped in lace with an open Bible and a long-stemmed white mum, candelabra holding burning white tapers, baskets of white carnations, and mums, and large foliage arrangements of jade, emerald green palms. The couple knelt at the white kneeling bench during the benediction.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mr. Edgar J. Wells of Albertson, organist and Miss Ada Thigpen, of Beulaville, soloist. Miss Thigpen, sister of the groom sang "I would Be True." "Saviour Like A Shepherd Lead Us" and as a prayer, "Take Time To Be Holy."

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Ellis King of Route 5, Jacksonville, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin styled with an empire waistline. The bodice, overlaid in re-embroidered lace featured a round neckline and long satin sleeves, tapering to points over the hand. Lace appliques accented the empire line, the neckline and the points in the sleeves. Lace appliques were repeated on the chapel length train which fastened with a bow at the empire line. Her dress was made by Mrs. Letha Scott of the Cedar Fork Community.

She wore a bouffant veil of illusion and carried a Bible, a gift of the groom, covered in white satin, and topped with a white carnation, pompons, an orchid and white satin ribbons.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Gerald Bracey of Winston-Salem, sister of the bride. She was attired in a formal gown of shrimp crepe in the empire style. Her skirt was overlaid with shrimp chiffon and soft gathers accented the back at the empire line. She wore a petal hat of shrimp chiffon and maline and carried a nosegay of carnations and pompons in mixed fall colors.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Stanley Miller of Summerville, S. C., sister of the bride, and Mrs. Roy Cottle of Charlotte, N. C. They were attired in shrimp crepe gowns and headpieces styled identically to the honor attendants. They carried similar bouquets.

Little Miss Bea Thigpen of Beulaville, cousin of the groom served as flower girl. She wore a floor length gown of shrimp crepe accented in the back with a gathered train of shrimp chiffon attached to the empire line. She carried a white basket of carnations and a pompon in mixed fall colors and wore pearl hat of shrimp crepe.

Attending his son as best man was Mr. O. S. Thigpen, Sr. of Beulaville. Ushers were O. S. Thigpen, Jr. of Richmond, Va.; Victor Morris, Jr. of Philadelphia, Pa.; Arthur Weeks of Sanford, and David Quinn of Beulaville.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. King chose a green mint crepe dress, beige accessories and a yellow carnation corsage.

Mrs. Thigpen, mother of the groom, wore a beige dress and matching lace coat, black accessories and a shrimp carnation corsage.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Warren Lanier of Chincapin, aunt of the bride.

Following the Brown-Thigpen wedding, a reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall, given by the family and friends of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thigpen of Beulaville greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line.

The bride's table was covered with white peau de soie overlaid with white tulle edged in Chamilly lace. The corners were draped with white satin bows and carnations. A tall white epergne holding an arrangement of shrimp and green carnations, shrimp and white tulle and gray.

After the traditional first slice had been cut by the bride and groom, Mrs. Ralph Heres of Raleigh, aunt of the groom, served the guests. Other refreshments were bridal mints and cheese dainties. Hostesses at large were Mrs. Elwood Quinn of Beulaville, Mrs. Don Williams, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. F. H. Danley, and Mrs. Peggy Thomas of Beulaville.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Thigpen, Jr. of Richmond, Virginia.

WEDDING TRIP

Following the reception the new Mr. and Mrs. Thigpen left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. For traveling, bridesmaids were Mrs. Stanley Miller of Summerville, S.
