

Marion Edwards Edwards Farm Supply

is one of the he traditions of this season. We extend thanks.

BLACKBURN'S SERVICE OIL CO., INC.

Warsaw, N. C.

i's wash & dry Laundry

First Family will spend most of the Christmas holidays in Raleigh. (Governor Bob Scott said the family will spend a little time at their home in Haw River, however, so the five children can visit neighborhood friends and Mrs. Scott can check the progress of a new room being added to their home on Mel-ville Farms.

Mrs. W. Kerr Scott -- "Miss Mary" -- the Governor's mo-ther, and his brother, Osborne, are expected to join the fam-lly at the Executive Mansion on Christmas Eve and spend Christmas Day there, Governor Scott said public appearances will be held to a minimum and there will be no entertaining at the Mansion after December 21. No guests, other than the family, are expected.

Mrs. Scott's relatives will visit the Mansion during the holidays, their first visit to the Mansion as a group.

The Governor has completed his Christmas shopping. "I bought a gift for Jessie Rae," the said. "She handles all the control of the films again.

One tradition the Scotts had to give up the films again.

Mrs. Scott said she had completed her shopping also. The children were still looking.

The Scotts are, with one exception, sending no Christmas cards this year. "We are using the news media to express our season's greetings and best wishes for the new year," Governor Scott said. "That way we don't leave anyone out."

The exception is service home and decorate it.

clubs and USO's around the It will be a family-or

The Scotts will continue several family traditions this Ch-

The Governor and First Lady will open their presents to each other Christmas Evenight. The children will open theirs Chris-mas morning.

About mid-morning Christ-mas. Day, the family will sit down to a big breakfast of pan-

Mrs. Scott said the family

ing the extended weekend.

254 others injured in 452 ac-

Leading causes of these ac-

Medicare

reinmbursement for doctor's bills for treatment received between October 1, 1967 and Sep-

The office hours are from 8:45

Santa's Workshop is on display at National Spinning Company in Beulaville, Santa's Workshop features Santa and his helpers preparing for Christmas. This display is a will watch family movies Chistmas Eve night. "We took movies of the twins on theirlst.Christmas and have continued each year since," Mrs. Scott said. "All of us to give up this year was the cutting of the Christmas tree on the farm. Their house this year -- the Executive Mansion -was decorated by garden clubs in Raleigh, including the three trees which came from three different sources,

The Scotts usually take axe in hand and wander over hill and vale on the farm at Haw River until they find a cedar to their liking, then drag it

It will be a family-oriented Christmas for the Scotts. "I want to spend as much time as I can with the family while the children are out of school," the Governor said. "We may take a short trip somewhere."

Governor Scott will spend part of his holiday preparing his year report to the people on his first year in office. The Governor said he also plans to catch up on his readon that during the year," he

Ministry To The Deaf

A new ministry to the deaf has been initiated at Winter Park Baptist Chuch for deaf persons in Wilmington and the urrounding area.
The new workwill enable deaf people to participate in the Sunday School. Future plans are for these deaf persons to participate in the worship services, Training Union and other church activities. Rev. Douglas Farmer is pastor of the church. church. Preparation for the deaf ministry includes training of workers to use the language of signs. Thirteen hearing persons are presently enrolled in the Advanced Sign Language class, which meets each Sunday evening at 6 o'clock.

Deaf people who would like to know more about this new ministry are invited to con-tact Mr. John Griffin at the church office.

The most unusual feature of this new deaf ministry is the DEAF-BLIND section. A young hearing man, Mr. Henry Sprad-lin, is presently serving as in-terpreter for the two DEAF-BLIND members. Mr. Sprad-lin sits betwee the two multiple-handicapped men and spells the lesson into their hands while the regular teacher tea-cher in voice and sign langu-

Take the Scrooge syndrome out of your Christmas holiday under influence of alcohol, 32; and reckless driving, 29. this year and make it the mer-delight for children and adults-featuring mechanically operated elves, a toy machine, and Santa's reindeer and sleigh. (Photo by James Campbell)

riest by staying out of the 1,500 traffic accidents which the N.C. State Motor Club warns may take 30 lives and injure 900 other persons on North Carolina's streets and highways durainst 171 for the year before.
"Traffic deaths are still run-The state will officially count the state will officially count its Christmas highway toll from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 24, through midnight Sunday, Dec. 28, a period of 102 hours. In a 30-hour period last year when the holiday fell in the middle of the week, the cold statistics showed seven killed and 254 others injured in 452 according to the statistics showed seven killed and 254 others injured in 452 according to the statistics showed seven killed and 254 others injured in 452 according to the statistics showed seven killed and 254 others injured in 452 according to the statistics showed seven killed and 254 others injured in 452 according to the statistics showed seven killed and 254 others injured in 452 according to the statistics showed seven killed and 254 others injured in 452 according to the statistics showed seven killed and 254 others. ning behind the 1968 pace, and we have a good chance to show a decrease for this year," he said. "Let's make our state the nicest Christmas gift of all by driving with extra care to keep ourselves and our fellow man out of the obituary columcidents were: speeding, 112; failed to yelld right of way, 55, drove left of center, 54; Casements Heighten Reinburstment The last chance to file for

One of the most contemporary-styled windows is the wood casement — an increas-ingly popular feature in both single and multi-family homes. The slim lines and unclut-tember 30, 1968 is December 31, 1969. This applies to everyone covered by Medicare's Supplementary Medical Insurance.

Mr. James P. Temple, Manager of the Goldsboro Social Sequential Conference of the Goldsboro Sequential Conference of the Goldsboro Seq tered glass areas of wood casements reflect and emphasize modern decor. At the same urity Office, also reminds sentime, the window offers simple ior citizens, "Doctor's bills for October, November and De-cember 1969 can sometimes be operation, cleaning ease, good visibility and maximum ventiapplied to the 1970 deducti-

Casements open outward at a 90-degree angle with the The Social Security Office at 134 North John Street, Golds-boro, N. C. has a staff to help the public file Medicare Claims. turn of an easy-to-reach handle. This makes them especially practical in awkward locations - such as above kitchen sinks and countertops. They are available in stock sizes of ponderosa pine at local lumber dealers.

Christmas Holiday Traffic -Drive With Care

> "Tis the season to be jolly, but not if you're a careless drinking driver," cautioned Thomas B. Watkins, president of the motor club. "The six holiday periods so for this year have brought death to 115 persons in traffic accidents as ag-

As we relive the miracle of that first Christmas, we send our sincerest greetings to everyone. For your kind patronage, our thanks.

a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The telephone number is 735-6811. us this moment, to send our sincere and hearty thanks is and neighbors, whom we have served with ut the year. May the best of holidays be yours.

