Beulaville 4-H Club

On Monday night, April 16, the Beulaville 4-H Club sponsored a basketball game at E. E. Smith. They played the Kenansville Boy Scouts. Although fans were few, the game was a success. The boys were very spirited and played an impressive game. To help with the expenses for the game, the club conducted a safety campaign. We picture

75 Years of Growth and Service!

From this small office located at 124 Princess Street in Wilmington, Cooperative Savings and Loan started business in the spring of 1898. Today Cooperative Savings and Loan is the largest in Southeastern North Carolina with branch offices and assets totaling nearly 90 million dollars.

We feel that this growth is a real indication of the confidence the people of this area have in Cooperative Savings and Loan.
