There's a dramatic change taking place in North Carolina.

North Carolina is changing, no question about it. All across the state, people are discovering the pleasures of going to outdoor dramas, to plays, to dramatic events of all kinds. And they're enjoying every minute of it.

Last year, nearly a million people attended North Carolina's many professional non-profit theatre productions. And it's no wonder. North Carolina's interest in theatre has been growing at a rate that is, indeed, dramatic. For example, we have more outdoor dramas to choose from than any other state in the nation. And more North Carolinians attend live theatre than any of the other performing arts.

This year, we'd like you to be a part of the "dramatic" change that's taking place in our state. And we'll make it very easy to get started.

Just send us a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and we'll send you a book of tickets good for free admission or discounts to many of North Carolina's major shows. Mail your request to: North Carolina Theatre Arts, 532 North Wilmington St., Raleigh, NC 27604.
