

Journal Presented To Library

The board of trustees of the Duplin County-Dorothy Wightman Library has presented "Journal of a Seceh Lady: the Diary of Catherine Ann Devereux Edmondston" to the library in memory of Wayne Jordan. Jordan's widow, Mrs. Sallie H. Jordan of Wallace, is chairman of the board of trustees.

Edited by Beth Gilbert Crabtree and James W. Patton of the N.C. Department of Cultural Resources, Division of Archives and History, the book represents a unique portrait of Civil War North Carolina. Wife of a prominent planter in Halifax County, Mrs. Edmondston spent most of the war on the family plantation. Her diary provides a remarkable record of southern life during the conflict.

Roberta Williams, library director, commented on accepting the book for the library, that "since Mr. Jordan was a man who loved history and the South, this title is particularly fitting as a memorial to him. The library is pleased to have this book in its collection."

Contributions in memory of or in honor of individuals may be made to the library's

Friends Of The Library Meeting

The Duplin County - Dorothy Wightman Friends of the Library, a group of interested citizens who support the library and its services, will hold their annual dinner meeting Thursday, October 23 at 7 p.m. in the E.E. Smith Jr. High School cafeteria in Kenansville.

The speaker will be Mrs. Gorda Singletary, a member of the Friends of the New Hanover County Public Library in Wilmington and president-elect of the N.C. Association of Friends of Public Libraries.

The dinner, a dutch affair will be prepared by the cafeteria staff and will cost $3.75. Reservations may be made by calling the library at 296-1333 before October 16.

The Friends of the Duplin County library provide support for the library in many ways. Currently they are raising funds to purchase a globe for the new building. Anyone may join the Friends for $1 per year for adults and memorial fund at any time. Funds are used to purchase books as a lasting memorial to persons living or deceased. A special bookplate is placed in the book stating the name of the individual being honored and also the name of the donor. For additional information, call the library in Kenansville at 296-1333.

50 cents for students. Membership applications will be taken the night of the dinner. Individuals may also contact the library for additional information. C.M. Rice, president of the Friends, and Roberta Williams, library director, extend an invitation to all to attend the dinner meeting October 23rd.

Federal law requires a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawal.

Not so long ago, saving money meant having just a savings account at your local bank.

But times have changed. While regular savings accounts are still important, BB&T now offers a variety of savings certificates to give you an opportunity to earn higher interest on your savings.

Branch Banking and Trust gives you a choice of ten Certi-ificates of Deposit, eight of which require a minimum deposit of only $500. With terms ranging from thirty days to eight years, there are certificates for both your short-term and long-term needs. And in most cases, you have the option of having the interest credited to your checking or savings account, paid directly to you by check or added to your certificate principal.

Interest can be received monthly, quarterly or at maturity.

For more information about BB&T certificates, call or stop by your nearest BB&T office. We'll tell you more about the options you have and the money they can earn you at a full-service bank.
