4-H'ers Attend Sewing Contest

Twenty-four Lenoir County 4-H'ers and other youth were among 189 youth from across the state who modeled back-to-school fashions at the recent "Back-To-School" Sewing Contest in Raleigh. The contest, which was held at the Jane S. McKimmon Center, is an annual event sponsored by the N.C. Cotton Wives, Cotton Growers Association, Inc. Each year this contest provides the opportunity for youth ages 9-13 to show off their creativity in selecting and constructing a garment in a cotton or cotton blend fabric.

Lenoir County had the largest number of participants of any county in the state and for the third year received the most awards according to Ann Parrish, 4-H Extension Agent and Melissa Smith, Home Economics Extension Agent. Nine Lenoir County 4-H'ers received awards.

In the 9-11 year old category, Verna Johnson and Annette Harper received Honorable Mention and the ninth place award went to Glenda Hudson.

In the 12-13 year old category, Jan Smith, Anita Creech, Anita Harper and Amy Hinson received Honorable Mention. Amy Nix received eighth place and Gene Lupton, Jr. received second place.

Other Lenoir County models were: Martha Ann Daughety, Stephanie Stroud, Lvnv Benson, Margaret

Harrison, Cammy Crawford, Taffy Repass, Debbie Wade Dawn Rich, Kim Thigpen Lisa Pollock, Johna Howard, Deanna Smith, Treva Hart-sell, Kristen Williams and Megan Hill.

E.E. Smith Junior High Prepares For Opening Day

The faculty of E.E. Smith Jr. High met in the cafeteria August 20 for the first full meeting.

J.M. Robinson, teacher of exceptional children, gave an inspiring prayer. It was followed by a welcome by Principal J.G. Henry, who gave an overview of the school year. The staff observed a moment of silence for the former Chief County School Executive, Mrs. Gloria B. Morgan was introduced as the new guidance counselor.

As a result of the CAT test scores, teachers and parents now have pertinent information which will enable them to analyze more quickly those skills that need to be retaught, and to provide individualized and small group instruction in subject areas where there is a need.

All grades will be involved in the remedial reading program again this year. Other support services are provided for children in special education, remedial math and honors English.

Longer blocks of time have been provided in the schedule to teach concepts and to develop skills. Math-science blocks in the 7th grade, remedial reading is being taught by the basal teacher and the reading lab teacher. Career-education is offered in the 7th and 8th grades. Public school music is offered in grade seven. Band is offered to those who elect it at all grade levels if they purchase or rent an instrument or pay certain basic band instruments too costly for individual purchase. Chorus is offered in grades eight and nine.

Parents are invited to visit the school to see the operations and to join the PTO organization and Band Booster organization.

Teacher assignments for the year as follows: Mrs. J.P. Blalock, language arts; Mrs. A.D. Craft, language-arts; Miss J.C. Croom, math-science and social studies; K. Dempsey, math; W.P. Fennell, agriculture and career education; Mrs. W.B. Frederick, librarian and social studies; Mrs. E.D. Hueston, home economics and career education; D.W. Nunn, health/physical education; J.M. Robinson, special education; T. McMahon, L.D. teacher; Mrs. S.H. Smith, science; Miss M.E. West, science, health/physical education; Mrs. Z.B. Williams, language-arts, social studies and honors English; Miss M. Morgan, public school music and chorus; T. Newman, band; Mrs. G.B. Morgan, guidance; J. Carr, driver education; Mrs. D.B. Grady, reading improvement; Mrs. H.D. Pierce, reading improvement; and Mrs. R.B. Capps, remedial math.

Students will find their names and homeroom teachers posted on the front cafeteria windows in the breezeway. The first full day of the school year is August 31. All 9th grade students must have a physical examination on file by the deadline of Sept. 18, 1981. All football players must have a physical examination before practice begins.

Beulaville Man Charged

Samuel "Boots" Collins of Beulaville was charged with felony, auto theft, offering a stolen vehicle for sale, and changing or altering vehicle serial plates on Friday by State Inspector J.H. Creech of the N.C. Division of Motor Vehicles, License and Theft Section.

Collins was placed under $1,000 bond for a preliminary hearing in district court in Kenansville Sept. 21, 1981.

Inspector Creech was assisted in the investigation by Beulaville Chief of Police Aubrey Murphy and Deputy Alfred Basden of the Duplin County Sheriff's Department.
