Jackson-Boyette United In Wedding

Lois Faye Boyette and Robert Earl Jackson were married at Johnson Baptist Church near Warsaw on August 7th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Boyette of Warsaw. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jackson of Pink Hill.

The double-ring ceremony was officiated by the Reverend Kenneth Durham after introductory songs sung by Anita Waters of Faison accompanied by J.W. Boyette on the piano.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her brother, Brooks Boyette. The bride wore a formal gown of white silkened organza and Chantilly lace over peau de soie. Her gown was fashioned with a fitted all lace bodice designed with a Queen Anne neckline accented with seed pearls and a keyhole back and long full lace bishop sleeves with deep lace cuffs. The A-line skirt was enhanced with a crystal pleated panel of silkened organza edged with lace and the panel flowed down the cathedral train trimmed with lace which continued around the hemline of her gown. The bride chose a tiered cathedral-length mantilla of imported silk illusion with pencil edging and Chantilly lace which fell from a lace

Camelot cap adorned with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pastel silk summer flowers.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Doris Nielson, sister of the bride. Doris wore a formal gown in light blue silk knit. Her gown was designed with a pleated skirt and an elastic neckline and elbow-length sleeves.

Bridesmaids were Cheryl Nielson of Mississippi, niece of the bride; Pam Godbold of Warsaw; and Ozell Jackson of Kinston, sister of the groom. They wore formal Italian silk gowns in rainbow colors. The gowns were designed with a high neck, sheer cape covering the spaghetti straps that complemented the pleated skirts.

Leigh Ann Carlton of Warsaw attended as flower-girl. Leigh Ann wore a dress of powder blue Italian silk with cap sleeves. The groom chose his father as best man. Ushers were Tommy Boyette of Warsaw, nephew of the bride; Benny Ray Batchelor of Warsaw, cousin of the bride; Gary Hardison of Pink Hill; and Patrick Boyette of Warsaw, nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer.

The wedding was directed by Connie Carlton of Warsaw. Presiding at the guest register was Debra Britt of Warsaw.

Merritt-Kennedy Vows Spoken

Melody Love Kennedy of Pink Hill and David Phillip Merritt of Fayetteville were united in marriage at four o'clock on Saturday, August 21st in Sandy Plain Free Will Baptist Church. The Rev. Wayne King and the Rev. Ransom McAbee officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and was escorted to the altar by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kennedy of route 2, Pink Hill.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip D. Merritt of Route 2, Fayetteville. The bride wore a white formal gown of organza with silk Venise and Schiffl lace. It featured a high silk Venise lace-trimmed neckline, schiffl embroidered yoke, empire lace trimmed bodice with triple caplet which formed the sleeves. A full skirt with motifs of lace and lace-trimmed flounce flowed into an attached chapel train. Her veil was of three-tiered lace trimmed with a pearl-covered headpiece. She carried a silk bouquet of yellow and white roses with daisies, lavender, blue and peach flowers, and lace streamers.

Miss Ellen Houston of Pink Hill, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Nannette Maready of Kinston, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Melanie Seymour of Pikeville; and Miss Kim Pickett of Beulaville. Miss Betsy Kennedy of Pink Hill, sister of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid.

The groom chose his father to serve as best man. Ushers were David Moore of Fayette, Douglas Kennedy of Pink Hill, brother of the bride; and Tony Souder of Arapahoe.

Nuptial music was presented by Roy Lewis of Aurora and Mike Warren of Spivey's Corner, pianists. Mrs. Deborah King of Kinston, Miss Lora Chesmore of Pink Hill, and Miss Rhonda Jones of Goldsboro were the vocalists.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Margie Smith of Kinston. Miss Cathy Herring of LaGrange and Miss Hope Smith of Kinston presided at the register.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of East Duplin High School and a 1982 graduate of Mount Olive College with an associate in science degree. She will be employed in Raleigh.

The groom is a 1979 graduate of Cape Fear High School and a 1981 graduate of Mount Olive College with an associate in science degree. He is now attending Wake Technical College in Raleigh studying computer technology and is employed part-time for Pace Corporation in Raleigh.

After a wedding trip to the Outer Banks, the couple will be residing in Raleigh.
