Smith-Maready Vows Spoken

Tammie Jo Maready and DeLeon Smith III exchanged their wedding vows in a candlelight ceremony at six o'clock in the Piney Grove Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church on Saturday. September 25th. The bride's former pastor, Dr. B. W. English, officiated at the double-ring rites.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Maready of Beulaville. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D.L. Smith II of Pink

The couple spoke their vows before an altar decorated with brass candelabra complemented on each side with an arched candelabra, areca palms, roosevelt ferns and bronze mums. Hurricane lamps and greenery were placed in each window. Pews were marked with tall hurricane lanterns with pompons. Aisle were pulled by Duane Jarman and Doug Maready

Jan Raynor presented a program of pre-nuptial ..When You're Loved." "One in a Million" and "Devoted to You" were sung by Lori Cavenaugh and Jan Raynor.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a formal-length gown of white Chantilly lace over peau de soie designed with a Queen Anne neckline outlined in scalloped matching lace beaded with pearls and sequins. The fitted bodice was overlaid in matching lace. The long fitted sleeves were fashioned of lace extending to calla points. The full bouffant skirt and overlaid chapel-length train were accented with cascading tiers of ruffled lace. Her white handkerchief was a gift as a child from her great grandmother Edwards.

In reaching the altar, the bride sang. "When You Created Love."

Pam Sloan was her sister's matron of honor. She was attired in a formal gown of lustrous polyester knit of beige-rust floral design overlaid with a chiffon cape. She carried two bronze spider mums with rust velvet and pichoted satin streamers. Gypsophila was also worn in her hair.

Tonya Pierce was maid of honor and her dress was identical to that of the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Jennifer Smith. sister of the groom, Lovey Andrews, Renae Eubanks, Bonnie Hall and Debbie Stilley, cousins of the bride. They were formal gowns of rust with matching caps and carried a single spider mum. Amber Sloan was her aunt's miniature bride. She wore a dress of Chantilly Jace over peau de soie designed with a round neckline and
