

Williams-Warren Speak Vows

Ethelyn Marie Williams and Ronnie C. Warren were united in marriage at 5 p.m. Saturday Oct. 16 at the Deep Run First Baptist Church. The Rev. Jimmie L. Williams officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

She was given in marriage by her parents. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Williams of Deep Run.

The groom is the son of the late Otho J. Warren and Mrs. Jewel Lawhorn of Willow Springs.

The bride wore a princess line full-length white silk organza gown which featured a pearl embroidered alencon lace bodice, long full bishop sleeves with lace cuffs, and a natural waistline. Scallop lace edged the hemline of the skirt and the attached chapel length train.

Her headpiece was a pearl embroidered alencon lace covered cap and a two tier silk illusion walking length veil with scalloped lace trim.

Attendants
Lynn W. Cox of Kinston was her matron of honor. Maid of honor was Ann Williams. Shelia Koonce Warren and Gayle Williams were bridesmaids.

The groom chose the Rev. Robert Wayne Prescott of Raleigh to serve as his best man.

The music was presented by organist Valeria Taylor, and pianist Nell Sutton, the soloist was Junious Williams.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Audrey H. Williams of Deep Run. Presiding at the register was Kay S. Jones of Greenville.

The bride is a graduate of Hardbarger Business College and is currently employed with the N.C. Court of Appeals Central Staff. The bride also serves as minister of music at Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church.

The groom is a graduate of King's Business College and is employed as a mechanic with Carolina Power and Light Company.

After a wedding trip to Fontana Village and the Great Smoky Mountains, the couple will reside at 411-A Aversboro Road, Garner.

The reception followed immediately after the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church.

Assisting in the serving were Velma H. Martin, Mrs. Mildred Waller, Alice Prescott, Phyllis Sealey, Jennette Smith, Margaret McLaurin, Debbie Barnes, Kristen Williams and Mardy Hooks.

Guests were welcomed at the reception by Mr. and Mrs. John Braswell Smith of Kinston and the Rev. Larry H. Hutchens of Deep Run.

The bride was honored at a miscellaneous shower on Sept. 19, in Cary. Hostesses for the shower were Miss Gayle Williams and Mrs. Sallie Puckett.

A miscellaneous shower was given by the members of Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church on Sept. 24.

A pig picking was held in

James Sprunt Foundation Presents Resolution In Memory Of Winifred T. Wells

The James Sprunt Foundation Board of Directors adopted a resolution in memory of Winifred T. Wells, an attorney from Wallace, who served as a member of the board of directors from 1979 until her death earlier this year.

Tom Yates, chairman of the board, presented the resolution to Mrs. Wells' husband, Dr. D.L. Wells of Wallace.

In addition to the resolution, the Foundation funded a scholarship in memory of Mrs. Wells, awarded to Warren Kennedy of Beulaville, a student in the criminal justice program at JSTC.

Governor Honors Duplin Volunteers

Outstanding volunteers in Duplin County will be honored by Gov. and Mrs. James B. Hunt Jr. on Tuesday, Oct. 26 in Williamston at the Martin County Auditorium on the Williamston High School campus. A reception will begin at 5 p.m. followed by the 1982 Governor's statewide Volunteer awards ceremony at 5:30.

The following volunteers will receive awards in five categories: Al Smith of Warsaw received the individual human service volunteer award; William Brinkley of Chinquapin received the individual community volunteer leader award; John Bell of Faison received the senior citizen volunteer award; Chinquapin Volunteer Fire and Rescue received the community volunteer organization award; and the Wallace United Methodist Church received the church/religious volunteer group award.

A local selection committee was appointed by the Duplin County Involvement Council to choose the top volunteers in their communities.

Magnolia United Methodist Women

The Magnolia United Methodist Women met Oct. 14. Mrs. Betty Lanier had the devotion. Mrs. Pickett, president, welcomed the large crowd from the parish and neighboring churches.

Mrs. Maude Smith introduced the missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith from Tanzania, Africa. They shared in showing slides and reporting on their work for the past four years. They said the Africans are ready to hear about Jesus but many more workers are needed to meet this need.

The group appreciated John and Christine sharing their experiences.

After the program, everyone was invited to the fellowship hall for a social hour, refreshments, and to see a display of African money, musical instruments, and more.
