

Silpola-Brinson Vows Exchanged

Rosemary Brinson and Mark Siipola exchanged wedding vows on Saturday, October 9, 1982, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Camillo Schmidt in Bethesda, Maryland. The Reverend Lauren R. Sharpe of Kenansville officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The outdoor ceremony was witnessed by approximately 40 family members and friends of the bride and groom. Rosemary was given away by her father, Jack Brinson of Kenansville. She wore an ankle-length ivory chiffon and lace wedding dress. Mark was attended by his father, John Siipola of Rio Dell, California, who served as best man.

After the ceremony, a reception was held for the guests. Music was provided by Regis Ferruzza of Washington, D.C. After a brief honeymoon in Washington, D.C., the couple is making their home in Arlington, Va.

The wedding guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Davis N. Brinson of Kenansville; Mr. and Mrs. John O. Siipola of Rio Dell, California; Mr. and Mrs. Steven W. McDonald of Perry, Fla.; Joe D. Brinson of Raleigh; Miss Marsha Siipola of Albany, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hussey of Wallace; Mr. and Mrs. James E. similar to the bridesmaids'. She carried a white wicker basket of carnations.

Cecil Rhodes attended his son as best man. Ushers were Charles Dow of Raleigh, Chris Mobley of Kenansville, Dennis Howard, Bill Rhodes and Rusty Sanderson of Beulaville.

Scott Jones of Beulaville served as ring-bearer. He wore a tuxedo like the groom's attendants and carried a ring pillow made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Daisy Jones.

Mrs. Bostic chose for her daughter's wedding a formal gown of pink polyester knit with a white floral design cape of sheer organza. The groom's mother wore a formal gown of wine polished polyester knit styled with sequined neckline and cuffs. They each wore a corsage of white roses.

Cousins of the bride, Connie Laughinghouse of New Bern and Nancy Jones of Wilson, presided at the register and presented programs.

The bride was a graduate of East Duplin High School and James Sprunt Technical College. She is employed at Wake Medical Center in Raleigh.

The groom graduated from East Duplin High School and attends North Carolina State University in Raleigh. He is employed by Duke Power Company in Chapel Hill.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Raleigh.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Edna Leonard of Jacksonville, Fla., and Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Billy Bostic and Patricia from Amsterdam, Holland, and relatives and friends from Raleigh, New Bern, Wilson, Jacksonville and Kinston.

Reception

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the wedding rites. Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Ray Bostic greeted the guests. Mrs. Edna Leonard served the cake and Mrs. Edna Laughinghouse served the punch. The bride's portrait was displayed in the reception hall. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Treasure Rhodes.

Rehearsal Dinner

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents following the rehearsal on Friday night. A barbeque buffet was given at Sid's Catering in Beulaville.

Bridal Luncheon

A bridal luncheon was given for Susan Kay Bostic on Oct. 9 at the home of Mrs. Brownie Simpson on Kennedy Lane. Joint hostesses were Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Carolyn Jones and Mrs. Cheryl Whaley Jones.

Showers

A miscellaneous shower was given for Susan and Cecil on Sept. 11 at the Beulaville Baptist Church fellowship hall. Hostesses were Evelyn Hunter, Bonita Fountain, Mattie Bostic, Bessie Kennedy, Catherine Quinn, Betty Ann Jones, Carolyn Jones, Brownie Simpson, Evelyn Gore, Lou Ann Powers and Elaine Higgs. The couple received numerous gifts which were taken to the bride-elect's home where they were kept on display.

On Sept. 29, a lingerie shower for Susan Bostic, bride-elect of Cecil Rhodes II, was hosted by Linda Whaley Buck and Edith Rhodes Mobley at the home of Mrs. Warren Whaley.

Susan was honored by a surprise shower by her friends and co-workers at Wake Medical Center on Oct. 10.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT - Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Lanier of Beulaville announce the engagement of their daughter, Anita Sue of Kinston to Edward Bruce Southerland Jr. of Kinston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bruce Southerland Sr. of Kinston. A November 26th wedding is planned.

Rhodes-Bostic Vows Spoken

Susan Kay Bostic and Cecil Rhodes II exchanged vows Saturday at six o'clock in the Beulaville Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Calvin Bostic of Beulaville and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rhodes, also of Beulaville.

Reverend Garland Foushee performed the double-ring ceremony. Tiny Bostic Kennedy provided music which included a flute solo and music at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of dacron organza with a Queen Anne neckline and full bishop sleeves with ruffled cuffs. The bodice was trimmed with silk Venise lace and pearl beading. The flowing skirt was trimmed with an apron effect ruffle with a double ruffle flounce at the hemline, falling into a chapel-length train. The matching veil was a camelot cap with a two-tiered, fingertip-length mantilla.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Angie Bostic. Bridesmaids were Linda Whaley Buck of Swansboro, Patty Bostic of Amsterdam, Holland, Francis Kelly of Mount Olive, Norma Dunn of Kinston and Edith Rhodes Mobley of Kenansville. They wore formal gowns of cranberry polyester knit which featured a single-width ruffle at the neckline which lengthened to a point at the back waistline. The maid of honor wore an identical dress of pink polyester knit. Each carried a nosegay of carnations and babies'-breath of cranberry, pink and white.

The flowergirl was Christal Mobley, niece of the groom. Her dress of pink was designed and made by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Earl Gresham, in a style
