

Quinn-Dupree Speak Vows

On Saturday, October 16 at three o'clock in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Albertson Ward, Miss Charlotte Renee Dupree became the bride of Timothy Warren Quinn, President Elbert Earl Moye officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Max Blizzard, organist, and soloists.

The bride entered the chapel to Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin. The recessional was the traditional wedding march. Solos included "The Twenty-third Psalm," "Evergreen," and "More." As the couple left the chapel, they presented their mothers with red roses. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Dupree of Albertson. Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Quinn Jr. of Kinston are parents of the groom.

Escorted in by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a long white formal-length gown of organza, Venise and Schiffli lace. It was fashioned with an empire waist covered with floral lace and scattered seed pearls. Scalloped Queen Anne lace bordered the neckline and back enclosure lined with small covered buttons. Full bishop sleeves were designed with matching floral lace bordered with wide lace cuffs enclosed with small covered buttons. The full A-line skirt was designed with a lace bordered apron front and wide flounced lace border which flowed into a chapel-length train. Her bridal hat was fashioned with a roll brim of sheer organza and lace, accented with a front band of organza flowers, and the lace-covered crown was scattered with seed pearls. A buffer of nylon illusion to which was attached the finger-tip illusion accented the back. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white daisies and babies'-breath and white ribbons tied in love knots.

Miss Tammy Creech of Kinston was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Laura Dupree, sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Celeste Outlaw, cousin of the bride, and Miss Charlene Deaver. The maid of honor wore a formal-length gown of mint green with a lace cape. The bridesmaids wore yellow gowns with lace capes. They carried nosegays of white daisies, babies'-breath and yellow and white ribbon.

Mr. Quinn was his son's best man. Ushers were Carse Thompson, cousin of the bride; Chris Gray and Tommy Hall.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Voncile Moore and Mrs. Julie Heath. Miss Kay Dawson presided at the register and programs were distributed by Scott Dupree and Neal Outlaw, cousins of the bride.

After a wedding trip to unannounced points, the couple will reside at 1201-D West Washington Ave., Kinston.

The bride is a graduate of East Duplin High School and attended Pitt Community College and Lenoir Community College. She is presently employed with J.C. Penney Co. in Kinston.

The groom is a graduate of Kinston High School and is presently employed with the Barrel of Fun in Kinston. He is also a member of the N.C. National Guard.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church cultural center. The bride's portrait was displayed on a table along with her bouquet. The four-tiered wedding cake, made by Mrs. Eleanor Harper, was decorated with light yellow icing trimmed with white daisies and yellow roses, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Joan Outlaw and Mrs. Julia Dupree, aunts of the bride, served the wedding cake. Punch was poured by Mrs. Rachel Thompson, aunt of the bride. Other refreshments included ham biscuits, chicken salad puffs, cheese ball and crackers, roasted pecans, melon balls, miniature tarts, chocolate fudge and mints. Others assisting were Mrs. Alice Outlaw, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Nellie Potter, Mrs. Mildred Harper, Mrs. Rachel Pate, Mrs. Catherine Carter, Mrs. Linda Heath and Mrs. Sheila Potter.

Rehearsal Dinner

On Friday night, prior to the rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Quinn, parents of the groom, entertained members of the wedding party at a pig-picking at the Kinston Pistol Range. The couple chose this occasion to present gifts to their attendants.
