

Smith-Blizzard Pledge Vows

Sonya Allan Blizzard and Anthony Carroll Smith were united in marriage at four o'clock at the Beulaville Presbyterian Church in Beulaville on November 14.

The Reverend G. Frank Sawyer officiated at the double-ring candlelight rites.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and escorted to the altar by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Blizzard of Beulaville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis C. Smith of Route 2, Pink Hill.

The bride wore a formal white gown of silkened organza and Chantilly lace over peau de soie fashioned with a fitted all lace bodice. Queen Anne neckline outlined with scalloped lace and adorned with seed pearls, and a key-hole opening in the back. Lace cuffs ended the organza lantern sleeves. The full-length skirt was designed with a panel of inverted accordian pleats in the front. Lace overlayed the full cathedral train and scalloped lace bordered the hemline of the skirt and train. Her mantilla of silk illusion featuring a rolled scalloped edge with motifs of lace and pearls fell softly from a Juliet cap of lace encrusted with pearls. The bride chose to carry her mother's Bible covered with lace and topped with white and shaded rose bridal flowers with white streamers.

Mrs. LaRita B. Brown of Wilmington was matron of honor for her sister. She was attired in a formal gown of burgundy crepe back satin. The puffed elbow-length sleeves were attached to a V-neck bodice accented with a double ruffle on each side. The flowing full skirt was attached to a fitted natural waist which featured a self-tie sash. She carried a nosegay of white and burgundy shades of pink silk flowers with rosette colored streamers. She wore a hairpiece of shaded pink flowers.

Miss Chris Coggins of Greenville was maid of honor and wore a rosette colored gown identical to that of the matron of honor. Her nosegay featured mixed roses and burgundy streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Debbie Keyzer of Pantego, Mrs. Jennifer Rigdon of Jacksonville, Mrs. Kim Taylor of Durham and Miss Cindy Smith, sister of the groom. They were attired identically to the maid of honor and carried nosegays with burgundy streamers.

Dennis Smith attended his son as best man. The ushers were Sidney A. Blizzard, Jr., brother of the bride; Stewart Brown of Wilmington; Terry Furell and Harold Smith of Pink Hill; and Lynn Smith, brother of the groom.

Master Adam Brown, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer. He wore a gray tuxedo like the groom and his attendants and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Sally Houston, organist and pianist, and Mrs. Mickie Brinkley, soloist and cousin of the bride, provided music for the wedding. Vocal selections included "One Hand, One Heart," "Wedding Song," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Debbie Smith presided at the bride's book. Mrs. Judy Hunter was the wedding director.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Blizzard chose a formal plum polyester gown with accordian pleated skirt and a sheer crystal pleated capelet attached at the neckline. A white orchid with rosette ribbon completed her attire.

Mrs. Smith chose a formal mauve gown of lustrous polyester featuring long sleeves with a cummerbund at the waistline. A white orchid with burgundy ribbon complimented her outfit.

Mrs. Peanie Blizzard, grandmother of the bride, wore a formal pea green gown complemented by a white rose corsage.

Mrs. Herman Houston, grandmother of the bride, wore a formal grape colored gown with a sheer flowing cape and a white rose corsage.

The former Miss Blizzard is a 1978 graduate of East Duplin High School, and a 1982 graduate of East Carolina University.

The groom graduated from East Duplin High School and is engaged in farming. He was Duplin County's 1982 Young Farmer of the Year representative.

After a honeymoon to Florida, the couple will reside at Route 2, Pink Hill.

Reception

A reception was given by the bride's parents following the ceremony in the fellowship hall. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Williams of Beulaville and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Davenport of Kinston greeted the guests.

The hall was decorated with a huge white wicker basket arranged with satin pink and ivory filled rose buds, ferns banked and placed intermittently, sprays of ivy, and hurricane lamps. A candelabra, interspersed with mixed flowers of the bride's chosen colors, enhanced the main table which was covered with a double-tiered lace cloth with white satin bows. The bride's portrait was displayed on an easel while portfolios of the bride were arranged on a table covered with a lace-bordered cloth facing the entrance.

Mrs. Hilda Smith, aunt of the groom, served the wedding cake which was topped with a "circles of love" arrangement. Mrs. Joyce Fry, aunt of the bride, poured punch from a silver punchbowl. Mrs. Peanie Albertson, cousin of the bride, served shrimp cocktails at a side table. Other refreshments included nuts, mints, potato chips, sausage balls, cheese dainties, chicken salad crescents, cheese ball and crackers, a silver fruit bowl of grapes, ham biscuits, and lady fingers.

Mrs. Carolyn Miller, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Gay Humphrey, Mrs. Linda Lee, Miss Kristie Miller, Miss Georgianna Thomas, Miss Selena Thomas, Miss Michelle Williams, all cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Maggie Chasten were reception assistants. Mrs. Lillian Grady and Mrs. Louise Brown were reception directors.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. S.A. Blizzard, Jr.

Wedding Breakfast

Mrs. Robert Jones of Kenansville and Mrs. Herman Houston, grandmother of the bride, hosted a wedding breakfast at the Graham House Inn in Kenansville for Miss Blizzard. The tables were appointed with pewter service and seasonal flowers. After the blessing by Mrs. Lillian Grady and a toast by her sister, Mrs. LaRita Brown, the wedding party enjoyed the meal consisting of orange juice, bacon, eggs, hash brown potatoes, biscuit and toast, butter and as sorted jellies, and coffee. At this time the hostesses presented Sonya with a gift, and she presented her attendants with gifts.

Rehearsal Dinner

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents after the rehearsal on Saturday night at the Smith's Community Building. Tables in the hall were decorated with pink Christmas cactuses and candles. Hors d'oeuvres were served from a side table followed by the main meal consisting of baked ham, drumettes, string beans, turnips, potato salad, candied yams, watergate salad, relishes, tea, an assortment of pies and cakes, and the traditional groom's cake served buffet style. At this time the groom chose to give gifts to his attendants.

Other Courtesies
Miss Chris Coggins hosted a kitchen shower for Miss Blizzard on Nov. 10 at Green Dorm in Greenville. The hostess served cake, punch, potato chips, nuts, dip and vegetables from a relish tray to the guests. Miss Blizzard received many useful and beautiful gifts and enjoyed being with old acquaintances again.

On Oct. 22, Mrs. LaRita Brown hosted a lingerie shower for her sister at the home of her parents. Miss Blizzard was presented with a corsage to match her outfit by Mrs. Brown. The bride-elect received many pieces of lingerie. Refreshments included a cake (made and decorated by Mrs. Brown), lady fingers, divinity, pecan tarts, nuts, mints, pickles, and punch.

A miscellaneous shower was given by friends and relatives honoring Sonya Blizzard and Anthony Smith at Smith's Presbyterian Church on Oct. 15. The honorees received numerous gifts which were placed on display at the couple's future home. The hostesses served cake, nuts, chicken salad shells, pickles, cheese ball and assorted crackers, and plum colored punch from a table covered with white lace over a pink lining. An arrangement of pink, white, and burgundy flowers and rosewood candles accented the table.

Engagement Party
Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Stuntz, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Furell, and Miss Cindy Smith entertained Miss Sonya Blizzard and Anthony Smith at a pre-party at their home on June 26. Guests enjoyed a pig picking with all the trimmings to celebrate this happy occasion.
