

Jones-Kelly Vows Spoken

Miss Frances Olive Kelly of Mount Olive and Stanley Earl Jones of Pink Hill pledged their wedding vows in a double-ring ceremony on Friday, November 5, at seven o'clock in the evening in the Alum Springs Baptist Church. The officiating minister was the Reverend Shelton Justice.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Linda Turner, pianist. "More" and "The Wedding Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Diana Herring. Traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly of Mount Olive. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones of Pink Hill are the parents of the groom.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and Chantilly lace. The fitted lace bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline outlined with lace etched with seed pearls. The full-length sleeves of matching lace ended with bridal satin inserts. The floor-length skirt extended into a chapel train. To compliment her gown, she chose a white waltz-length veil of nylon silk illusion with a Camelot headpiece which were enhanced with dainty Venise lace.

Miss Faye Kelly, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaid was Miss Lisa Kelly, also a sister of the bride.

Earl Jones was his son's best man. Ushers were Roger Jones, brother of the groom, Brian Rhodes and Michael Miller.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Jeane Pate, aunt of the bride. Miss Wendy Lanier presided at the register.

After a wedding trip to unannounced destination, the couple is residing on Route 2, Mount Olive.

The bride is a 1978 graduate of East Duplin High School and received her associate degree in nursing from James Sprunt Technical College. She is now employed by Duplin General Hospital.

The groom, a 1977 graduate of East Duplin High School, is employed by North Hills, Inc. and is presently working at Jacksonville.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall.

After the couple cut the first slice of the three-tiered white wedding cake, which was adorned with clusters of flowerettes in the bride's chosen color of pink, Mrs. Carolyn Sanderson and Mrs. Jennifer Brinson completed the serving. Punch was prepared by Mrs. Debbie Wheeler.

Other Entertainment

Parents of the groom-elect honored the couple, members of the wedding party and friends with a gig-picking on Oct. 30 at Smith's Community Building.

The family of the groom-to-be honored the couple with a floating shower on Oct. 9 at the home of the groom.

The women of Alum Springs Baptist Church and aunt of the bride were hostesses for a floating shower on Sept. 29 in the church fellowship hall.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED - Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kennedy of Route 2, Pink Hill, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Shelia, to Terry Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Heath of Pink Hill, Route 1. The wedding is planned for December 18 at three o'clock at Sandy Plain Free Will Baptist Church, Pink Hill. No invitations are being mailed. All friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend.
