

Thomas-Godbold Rites Solemnized

Carolyn June Thomas and Robert Joe Godbold Sr. were united in marriage in a private candlelight service at four o'clock in the afternoon at the Warsaw United Methodist Church in Warsaw on November 26, 1982.

Dr. Edward Gunter of Clinton officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride and groom were escorted to the altar by Jamie and Jeffrey Sumner of Warsaw, sons of the bride.

The bride chose an old-fashioned gown of antique beige with scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves of lace, with a slightly gathered waistline, and the skirt falling into two tiers of ruffles at the hemline. She carried a nosegay of silk flowers in blue, beige and brown with antique beige streamers.

The sanctuary was decorated in blue, beige and brown flowers and coordinating candles held by brass candelabras were draped in ivy. The chandeliers were dimly lit while John W. Boyette of Warsaw furnished soft music in the background.

The bride's sons, Jamie and Jeffrey Sumner, also served as ushers to the family members and close friends who witnessed the solemn vows.

Mothers were presented with white carnation corsages identical to the boutonnières of the groom and ushers.

Mrs. Carolyn Lanier of Chinquapin presided at the guest register. Mrs. Hilda B. Booth of Kenansville served as wedding director.

The bride is originally from White Lake and employed at Wiley T. Booth Insurance of Kenansville. Groom, son of Elizabeth B. Godbold and the late C.L. Godbold, farms with his brothers at Godbold Farms, Inc. of Warsaw.

After a honeymoon to the Outer Banks of North Carolina, the couple will reside at Chelly Street in Warsaw.

unique corsage upon her arrival. She was assisted in opening her many useful gifts by her mother, Nadine Blanton, and Eddie's mother, Eleanor Bass. For refreshments the guests enjoyed cake squares, coconut balls, cheese straws, sugared pecans and other finger foods with hot apple juice.

T. & C. Bridge Club

Mrs. Kenneth King was hostess for the Town and Country Bridge Club when it met Tuesday night with Mrs. Stuart Hall substituting for the only absent member. Mrs. J.J. Wells won the high score prize for members and Mrs. Hall was also given a gift. For refreshments, Mrs. King, assisted by Mrs. Hazel W. Scott, served chicken salad tarts, pumpkin bread, cheese and red and green jello. The members exchanged gifts before departing.

Birthday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth King honored their oldest daughter, Kristin, on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 5, to help celebrate her third birthday. There were about 32 friends, neighbors and relatives present. Those from out-of-town included Mr. and Mrs. Elton Soles of Long Beach. Helping serve were Mesdames Billy Barnette, Kenneth Savage, Ernest Grainger, Kenneth Smith and Ralph Page. Winnie-the-Pooh motif was carried out in the cake, which was served with iced drinks and ice cream. Party favors were given to the guests.

Birthday Supper

Melissa Grainger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grainger Jr. of the Duplin Country Club area, was given a buffet supper on Monday night, Dec. 6, by her parents honoring her on her second birthday. Among the out-of-town guests present were her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grainger Sr. of Wilmington. Others present from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dall also of Wilmington; Mrs. Elaine Holland and Chris of Goldsboro, also Mrs. Bridgett Murphy and four children, Mrs. Eili Anderson and granddaughter, Heather, and Mrs. Sheila Anderson of Watha. They served ham, turkey, green beans, potato salad, rolls, homemade bread and chocolate cake in addition to the birthday cake, which carried out the Mickey Mouse idea, along with tea or coke to drink.
