

Kenansville News

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones have returned from Houston, Texas, after a two-week visit there with one of Bob's sons and family.

Mesdames Gladys Edwards of Kinston and Lola Hill of Snow Hill visited Mrs. Margaret O. Dail last Tuesday.

Mrs. Viola W. Quinn accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Wilma Gray Allen of Jacksonville, spent the weekend with the Bobby Quinns in Zebulon.

Visiting with the Bert Alabasters during the past weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Alabaster and Mr. and Mrs. Cad Upchurch of Dunn and Mrs. Queen Glynn of Fayetteville.

Mesdames Louise K. Boney, Pearl C. McGowen and Mae H. Spicer accompanied Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell to Harrells last Tuesday to the annual Christmas luncheon of the Battle of Rockfish Chapter of the D.A.R.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spicer spent a couple of days last week in Bessemer City with her mother, Mrs. Juanita Hager.

Teresa Garris, Dana Hatcher and Stephen Williamson are home from Campbell College for the Christmas holidays. Julia Spicer of UNC-CH is also home for the upcoming holidays.

Homemakers Club
Mrs. Milton Rice, president, was hostess for the South Kenansville Extension Homemakers Club when it met with her Friday afternoon, Dec. 17. She presided over the meeting which began by singing two Christmas carols led by Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell. All prayed together The Lord's Prayer.

The program, "Holiday Foods Using Nuts" was presented by Mrs. J.B. Stroud. She gave a brief history of the pecan tree and distributed some tasty-sounding recipes using pecans and peanuts.

Mrs. N.B. Boney, secretary, called the roll noting eight members present and two visitors. The visitors were Lena Carroll and Thelma Weatherly. Mrs. Boney also read the minutes of the October meeting which were duly approved and she reported on the area meeting held in November. In the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. Boney gave that report.

The club voted to give $5 to the Foster Children's Christmas project.

After closing with the club collect, a social hour was enjoyed. Members exchanged Christmas gifts and the hostess served fruit cake, mints and nuts and other Christmas goodies with hot apple juice punch.

Hospital Auxiliary
The December meeting of the Duplin General Hospital Auxiliary was held Dec. 15 at the General Store. After the business meeting, the 14 present enjoyed (dutch) lunch. Doris English presided over the meeting. The opening devotional was given by Mary Mullis. Her meditation was on "Christmas Remembrances" and was followed by prayer written by Ralph Cushman. The secretary, Thelma Taylor, checked the roll and welcomed one new member, Thelma Weatherly of Warsaw. She also read the minutes of the November meeting. Martha Swann, treasurer, gave a detailed report and the chart showing work hours was discussed by all present.

United Methodist Women
The afternoon circle of the Kenansville United Methodist Women met jointly with the evening circle Monday night for their annual Christmas party. They had a covered-dish supper in the fellowship hall. Mrs. Worth Pearce asked the blessing. After the delicious meal, a business session was held with Mrs. Ed Rector presiding. Instead of exchanging Christmas gifts among themselves, members put a cash donation under the Christmas tree for the Foster Children's Christmas fund. Mrs. W.M. Ingram dedicated the gifts and made the closing prayer. There were 16 ladies present.

Eastern Star
Kenansville Chapter #215, OES, held its annual Christmas party at its stated meeting last Tuesday night. Sally Tyndall, worthy matron, and J.B. Stroud, worthy patron, were in their respective stations. After the ritualistic opening and business session, the program was presented by Louise K. Boney. She read a Christmas Prayer by Robert Louis Stevenson. J.B. Stroud read the Christmas Story from St. Luke. Ruby Newton read a poem entitled "God's Love is the True Gift of Christmas" by Helen Steiner Rice, and Gloria Brown led the group in singing a couple of carols. After the ritualistic closing, refreshments were enjoyed in the dining area and Christmas gifts were exchanged by the 19 present.

The Bridgettes
Mrs. Bert Alabaster was hostess for the Bridgettes Thursday night. The only visiting player was Bobby Kennedy. Mrs. Amos Brinson captured the high score prize and Mrs. Kennedy second high. The traveling prize was carried home by Vickie Vinson. For refreshments, the hostess served Italian cream pie with coffee, salted nuts and Christmas candies. Christmas tallies and napkins were used, helping to make the evening more festive.

Presbyterian Women Meet
Circle #1 of the Women of Grove Presbyterian Church met Monday afternoon, Dec. 13, with Mrs. N.B. Boney. After the group sang "Silent Night" led by Mrs. A.T. Outlaw, the Bible study was moderated by Miss Annie Catherine Rhodes, who also presided over the business session. All present took part in the Bible study from Colossians. The topic was "The Cosmic Reconciler." For refreshments, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J.B. Stroud, served cheese wafers, fruit cake, stuffed dates, Christmas candy and coffee.

Circle #2 met Monday night with Mrs. Ann Houston. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Doris Sitterson, who also gave the opening devotional and prayer. Mrs. Houston moderated the Bible study, assisted by Mrs. J.J. Wells. During the business session, they made plans to remember several of their members who are at the present time shut-ins. During the social hour which followed, Mrs. Houston served assorted cookies and cranberry punch to the nine present.

Baptist Circles
The Cora Stokes Circle of the Women of the Kenansville Baptist Church met with Mrs. George Penney on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Cleora Quinn Hudson presided and made the opening prayer. Mrs. Woodrow Brinson presented the program and made the closing prayer. Her topic was "Thinking in Swahili, the language of Kenya." For refreshments, the hostess served a congealed Christmas salad with crackers, cookies and coffee. She was assisted by Mrs. David English.

The Ella Cooper Circle met that night with Mrs. Ray Bell. The program and call to prayer were given by Mrs. Amos Brinson, who also presided. She was assisted by Mrs. Frances Oakley and presented a Christmas program which included several games during the social hour. The nine members present enjoyed cherry delight with whipped cream and coffee.

Count on the Classifieds to Do the Job

Greetings

'Tis the season to be jolly! And we send jolly good thanks to all our friends.

Serving Eastern North Carolina

Jenkins Gas & Oil

Warsaw

Christmas greetings

In the spirit of an old-fashioned Christmas we extend best wishes to all. We hope you and your loved ones share in the many old-time joys and blessings of the season.

Reeves Brothers

Comfy Division Kenansville

GREETINGS TO ALL

Holiday joy is twice as sweet when it comes from simple things... cherished things...our homes, our children, our friends. May the true pleasures of Christmas be yours.

Murphy Farms, Inc.

Hwy 11 East
Rose Hill

At Christmas

Old-fashioned ways of warm cordiality have a special meaning at Christmas. In this old-time spirit, we wish you holiday joy, ever-new, rich in the blessings of home, family, friends. Merry Christmas!

National Spinning Co., Inc.

Warsaw Beulaville