bership fell somewhat and along with the economy. "Last Thursday night's meeting was designed to attract enough recruiters to reach every person in Duplin County," he said.

The drive is to begin Jan. 1 and end the second Sunday in February (13th) at 3 p.m. at the West Hill First Baptist Church in Warsaw.

Branch officials are negotiating with the New York headquarters to have one of the national organization's top officials to be the guest speaker. The closing of the drive was selected because it is the 74th birthday of the national organization.

Wilkins described the organization as now the largest, oldest, the most influential, the most loved, the most hated, the most discussed, the most cussed Civil Rights organization in the country. "Always work within the system to obtain equality of opportunity for the citizens of America," he concluded.

Birth Announcements

Increase In NAACP Membership Drive

There was a sharp increase in volunteers for Duplin's 1983 NAACP membership drive, according to R.E. Wilkins, state membership chairman. "This may indicate a deeper concern of Blacks of the economy," he said. "Blacks are usually the last hired and first fired."

Big Zion A.M.E.Z. Church was nearly full Thursday night when a call went out for volunteers. In 1982, mem-
