Precythe-Whichard Vows Spoken

Amanda Gray Whichard of Wilson and David Stewart Precythe were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, December 11, in Wesley Memorial Chapel of First United Methodist Church in Wilson. The Rev. Linwood Blackburn officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Whichard of Robersonville. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Precythe of Faison are the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a three-piece ensemble of moire and chiffon. The chiffon blouse featured a lace ruffle and jabot at the neckline and lace ruffles at the cuffs. Juliet sleeves and a peplum waist enhanced the moire jacket and dirndl skirt flowed to the floor. She carried a bouquet of roses, carnations, Fuji mums and babies' breath in her hair.

Mrs. Randy Harrison of Wilson, matron of honor, wore a street-length, blue silk dress.

Mr. Precythe was his son's best man.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Charles Davenport, organist.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Harrison entertained at a reception in their home.

The couple will live in Faison.

Mr. and Mrs. Precythe are Atlantic Christian College graduates. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Precythe taught in Nash County. Mr. Precythe is a produce broker.

Mrs. Precythe Honored

On Saturday afternoon, Dec. 18, Mrs. Harold S. Precythe honored her daughter-in-law with a floating tea in her home.

Eunice Faison greeted the guests and Mrs. Ned Cottle directed them to the foyer where they were registered by Mrs. C.A. Precythe.

The home was decorated in live greenery, poinsettias and red burning tapers carrying out the Christmas motif. In the music room was a tall decorated lighted Christmas tree.

The dining table was overlaid with a white embroidered organza tablecloth centered with a floral arrangement of white and red carnations and greenery, flanked by three-tiered candelabra holding red burning tapers.

Mrs. Robert Williamson and Hazel Scott of Kenansville, aunts of the groom, alternated in serving from the beautifully appointed table.

Good-byes were said to Mrs. N.F. McColman.

Approximately 85 attended.

WEDDING PLANNED - Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Brown of Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Sullivan of Cape Coral, Florida, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Pam Sullivan, to Danny Carter, son of Reverend and Mrs. John Carter of Rout 4, LaGrange. A January 15 wedding is planned for four o'clock at Field's Chapel Church of LaGrange. All relatives and friends are invited.
