

BABY AND MOM DOING FINE - Though not the first baby of the new year 1983 at Duplin General Hospital in Kenansville, Richard Lee Killian, son of Reed Milton and Celia Marie Killian of Rose Hill, arrived on Monday, January 3, at 12:34 p.m. The Killians were transferred to Whisper Soft Mills in Rose Hill from the parent plant in California. Reed is the plant engineer and Celia is a student at James Sprunt Technical College. "I think I was born to be a country girl and would not want to go back to city living," Celia said when asked about how she likes Duplin. On the birth of her first child, she stated, "He is a boy that we really wanted and I'm happy." Young Richard weighed in at 9 lbs. 13 oz. and was 22 inches long. Mrs. Killian commented that the hospital and staff personnel were very supportive. "They are super," she said. "I'm glad I came to Duplin General, and I'm glad I chose Duplin Medical Association for my obstetrics." (Editor's Note: The first child born at Duplin General in 1983 arrived prematurely and later died after being transferred to Pitt Memorial. Photo by Sue T. Past Matrons and Patrons
The Past Matrons and Past Patrons of Kenansville Chapter, headed by J. B. Stroud as chairman, meet every first Monday night at 5:30 for their dutch supper meeting. The January meeting was held at the Wagon Wheel in Beulaville. There were 13 members and five visitors present. Among the members present were: Celia and J.B. Stroud, Louise K. Boney, Thelma B. Murphy, Kermit and Joyce Williams, Pannie and Walter Rhodes, Edna Brinson, Sally B. Tyndall, Margaret Johnson and Kathleen P. Snyder. Visitors included Herman and Mamie Sawyer, Amos Brinson, Stuart Johnson and W. Burkett Raper, president of Mount Olive College, who asked the blessing for the occasion.

Mesdames Louise W. Mitchell and Eloise K. Ryder substituted for two absent members. Between progressions, the hostess served cocoanut cake and fruit jello, barbecued nuts and coffee. High score prize was won by Mrs. Mattie Barbee for the members and by Mrs. Ryder for the visitors.

T. & C. Bridge Club
Mrs. E.S. McGowan was hostess for the Town & Country Bridge Club Tuesday night with Mesdames Mattie W. Barbee, Lorena Vestal and Louise W. Mitchell as visiting players. Club high score was won by Mrs. Hazel W. Scott and by Mrs. Barbee for the visitors. For refreshments, Mrs. McGowan, assisted by Mrs. Eloise K. Ryder, served pound cake and ice cream followed by coffee.

St. John's Lodge Installs Officers
At their regular stated meeting held on Thursday night, Jan. 6, the Masons of St. John's Lodge #13 held an open installation ceremony for their new officers. This was also ladies night with the widows of their deceased Masons as special guests. They were pinned with white carnation corsages as they arrived. Also included were the officers' wives. A barbecue pork and fried chicken supper preceded the meeting.

Liberty Hall Bridge Club
Mrs. Hortense T. Hasty was hostess for the Liberty Hall Bridge Club Wednesday night. Between progressions she was assisted by her mother, Mrs. E.C. Tyndall, in serving apple pie a-la-mode with salted nuts and coffee. Mrs. Stuart Hall won the high score prize for the three progressions.

The words of welcome were given by Billy Holland, 1982 master, and responded to by Sally Tyndall, worthy matron of Kenansville Chapter #215, Eastern Star. The opening prayer was made by Rev. Lauren Sharpe, who was also the installing officer. He was assisted by Snodie Wilson as installing marshal. Officers for the ensuing year are: Master, Gene Brown; Senior Warden, Charles Ingram; Junior Warden, John Barnette; Senior Deacon, Robert Hughes Jr.; Deacon, Denny Benson; Secretary, Charles Nicholson; Treasurer, Z.W. Frazelle; Stewards, Paul Ingram and Deleon Quinn; Chaplain, David English; Tyler, Lucian Grady.

Kontract Klub
The Kenansville Kontract Klub met Thursday night with Mrs. George Penney.

After timely remarks from all of the new officers, the past master's jewel was presented to Billy Holland by Snodie Wilson, also a past master of the lodge. David English, also a past master, pronounced the benediction.

Personals
Recent guests of Mrs. Hazel Scott and Johnny were Mr. and Mrs. David Cranmer Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. David Williamson and son of Charlotte. They were joined here by the Harold Precythes of Faison.
The Jack Williams family of Chapel Hill visited her mother, Mrs. Myrtle K. Quinn recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson went to Wilmington last Monday.

Mrs. Mattie W. Barbee during the recent holidays were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Veach, Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Veach and Went of Warsaw, Miss Jane Veach of Durham, Drs. Emory and Lynn Sadler of Figure 8 Island, all on Christmas Day. On the 28th, Mrs. Barbee's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ward, Mrs. Ruby Benton and Mrs. Pete Benton of Seven Springs, Mrs. Boots Floyd of Nashville, Tennessee, and Mrs. Frances Black of Kannapolis.

Seed Money Now Available From Arts Council

The Duplin County Arts Council is awarding $1,798.20 this year to local organizations proposing worthy projects. Any organization which operates on a non-profit basis, such as churches, schools, civic groups, clubs, etc., is eligible to receive mini-grants to assist their programming. Possible projects must have artistic value and must be designed to reach new audiences and participants. Applications will be accepted until Jan. 21. Application blanks are available at the Arts Council office, Room 109, Duplin County Courthouse and can be mailed to an organization on request. Call Merle Creech at 296-1922 if you have questions. Grants will be awarded on Feb. 23.

COOKING CORNER

Ideas from Betty Crocker's Working Woman's Cookbook

Recipes for quickly prepared, tasty dishes are treasured by working women everywhere—and, many point out, every woman is a working woman. As their numbers grow (there was a 2.9 percent increase in the number of women working outside their homes in just the last year), America's nearly 50 million working women like to know that they're not skimping on appetizing meals or important nutrition.

The new Working Woman's Cookbook from Betty Crocker will help them accomplish that goal. This 160-page illustrated volume offers quick-and-easy recipes and dishes that can be done ahead and refrigerated or frozen. There are loads of timesaving tips for menu planning, shopping and storage.

The book is from Random House. It's priced at $10.95 and is available at department and bookstores.

Here's a sample do-ahead recipe:

- HOT VEGETABLE SANDWICHES
- 6 unsliced whole wheat or white hamburger buns
  - 1 1/2 cups shredded Swiss cheese (about 6 ounces)
  - 1/4 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon dried basil leaves
  - 2 small zucchini, thinly sliced (about 1 cup)
  - 1 large tomato, chopped (about 1 cup)
  - 1 medium onion, chopped (about 1/2 cup)
  - 1 can (2 ounces) sliced ripe olives, drained

Cut thin slice from top of each bun; reserve. Remove center from each bun, leaving 1/4-inch wall. (Use removed bread for crumbs or stuffing.) Mix cheese, mayonnaise, salt and basil; spread about 1/4 cup in bottom of each bun. Mix zucchini, tomato, onion and olives; divide among buns. Top with reserved tops of buns. Wrap each sandwich in heavy-duty aluminum foil. Refrigerate no longer than 24 hours.

About 35 minutes before serving, heat wrapped Hot Vegetable Sandwiches on oven rack in 350° oven until hot and cheese is melted, about 30 minutes. 6 servings. NOTE: The book also gives directions for making this recipe to serve immediately.

Trips To Young People's Concerts

The Duplin County Arts Council is offering trips to the North Carolina Symphony's Young People's Concert in Raleigh this month. The 11 a.m., Saturday, concert will be Jan. 11. Assistant Conductor Jackson Parkhurst of the North Carolina Symphony will be joined by some special guests in the fun concert with the biggest and most exciting of all musical instruments—the symphony orchestra. The concert will be based on the fairytale, "The Sleeping

Beauty." The Arts Council will sponsor a van going to each concert. Vans will be loaned by Rivenbark Motors, Warsaw Motors and Phelps Motors. An appropriate number of chaperones will accompany the children. The $10 cost of the trip will include $5 ticket fees, help with gas and help towards chaperone tickets. After the concert, the group will go to lunch at a Raleigh restaurant. Each child will be responsible for his or her own lunch money. "There is no certain age that a child must be in order to go to these concerts," said Merle Creech, director of the Duplin County Arts Council. "I would like to stress that children be old enough to enjoy such a trip and able to share some responsibility for taking care of themselves. We'll need to leave about 9 a.m. and will return home about 3 or 4 o'clock, so we'll have full but really exciting days. If your children are ready and willing, I am." For reservations, call the DCAC at 296-1922. Reservations must be made by Jan. 19 and a minimum of five children is necessary.
