Duplin Pro Rick Green announced that Bill Potter and Billy Potter, father-son combination, teamed to win third annual Polar Bear Golf Tournament staged at DCC last Saturday. Potter and Potter fired rounds of 35-35-70, two under par to edge the team of Herman Kight and Dwight Wood and the twosome of Gerald Quinn and Carl Price by one stroke. Green expressed appreciation to the 30 teams that participated in the one-day event. "We would like to thank those who helped make the affair a success," Green said. "John Barrow, Bob Jones, Morris Tyndall and Carl Price did a super job with breakfast. Dennis Perry made the evening and pig-picking pleasant with his music." "We want to thank Pro Rick Green for another fine job," Lloyd Parker said. The following were winners in the Polar Bear staged at Duplin County Club Saturday afternoon.
