

Joe Lanier

SON of A GUN

Yesterday in Raleigh, Duplin and Jones counties officially got themselves a new representative in the state House as Wendell Murphy was sworn in. If this young agribusman from Rose Hill is one-tenth as successful in Raleigh as he has been in private business, Duplin and Jones County will reap many benefits. There was a whole lot of swearing-in going on in Raleigh yesterday. It was a swearing time in a swearing town. There was another swearing-in ceremony in which Duplin and Jones County will both be well represented, and that was when Senator Harold Hardison once again took his oath of office. With these two men looking out for our interests in Raleigh, I think we will be in the good for two years. We will watch and see.

of the politicians themselves. This new rule, or option or bill or whatever you might want to call it — said in simple terms. The Congressmen or Congresspersons, whichever, were to receive a cost-of-living increase of, let's say, $16,000. Now, it is a multiple-choice rule. If you vote "no" for the $16,000, you automatically get $9,000. However, both options cannot be voted away. If you vote against one, you get the other. So the Congressmen can come home and say, "I voted against the big raise. However, the other Congressmen made me take a $9,000 raise." That may sound amusing, but there are plenty of people whose total salary does not amount to that increase, and these people are paying taxes to make that increase possible.

If you would like to see some old photographs of Duplin County, the place to be is the Rose Hill Restaurant on Saturday at the Historical Society meeting. Sonny Sykes has gone about Duplin County photographing some treasured family pictures. He now has them on slides and will show them Saturday at 12 noon. Son-of-a-Gun...

BOARD OF HEALTH

Harry Carlton of Wallace was re-elected chairman of the Board of Health at a recent meeting in Rose Hill. Beaulville's Donna Thigpen was elected vice chairman.

Other members re-appointed were Margaret Kenan, Dr. J.M. Kornegay and Russell Bostic. Members of the board also include Dr. Steve Griffith, William Richards and Allen Nethercutt.

GRATITUDE EXPRESSED

Dan Newkirk and family wish to express their sincere gratitude to the Kenansville Jaycees, Quinn Company, Quaker Oats, Jackson's IGA and Kenansville Elementary School for the pancake supper benefit. Also, many thanks to the Socialites Club and Esquire Club for their private donations, and to the Duplin County Shiriners for their donation of several cords of firewood.
