Jimmy gave his remarks in which he expressed appreciation for his parents and leaders, and most especially the church leaders who had encouraged and led him in his climb to the Eagle award. He also expressed a sincere desire to set a good example for the boys in his troop and other Boy Scouts. He stated that he hopes his sons can benefit from the Church programs such as Scouting, as he has. He said that his goals are to go on a mission for the Church and to be married in the Temple to a worthy mate.

Kenansville Jaycees Sponsor Wrestling

The Kenan Memorial Auditorium will be the site for an action-packed night of popular Mid-Atlantic Championship Wrestling on Tuesday, Jan. 25 at 8:15 p.m. The matches are being sponsored by the Kenansville Jaycees.

Highlighting the big card will be a free-swinging six-man tag team tussle as the much-hated trio of Sgt. Slaughter, Don Kernodle and Paul Jones collide with the very popular team of Ricky Steamboat, Jay Youngblood and Sweet Brown Sugar. The fans will not want to miss any of the action in this battle as there is no love lost between these two teams and they will be going all out to settle their differences once and for all in this match. Slaughter, Kernodle and Jones have shown that the rules mean nothing them and this could cause problems for Steamboat, Youngblood and Sugar.

In a singles match the television championship will be on the line as Mike Rotundo, the very popular champion, defends his title for only the first 15 minutes of the match against the former champion, tough Jos LeDuc. Rotundo will have to be on his toes in this match as LeDuc will be out to do anything that he can to regain the title.

The kids will be treated to plenty of action in a special match that features two of the top midget wrestlers in the country. Little Tokyo takes on Tiny Tom in a match that will definitely be exciting.

There will also be other action-packed matches on the big card.
