Sandy Plain Senior Citizens
On Saturday night, Jan. 22, 41 members of the Sandy Plain Senior Citizens enjoyed a dutch dinner at Duff's Restaurant in Beulaville. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Houston sang several gospel hymns. Rev. Rashie Kennedy offered the prayer of blessing.

This is a non-denominational group of senior citizens.

The building committee met Thursday night at the educational building. Eight members were present: Joel Kennedy, Rev. Rashie Kennedy, Ernest Quinn, L.M. Bostic, Clinton Campbell, Eunice Bostic and Vallie Oxley.

Named Art Director

Thomas M. Hines

Thomas M. Hines has been promoted to art director at Pearson Clark & Sawyer Advertising & Public Relations in Lakeland, Fla.

In his new position, Hines will be responsible for the artistic products created for several clients, including

Balmar Crimp Tool Corp.

Before joining PC&S, Hines worked for Artdev Advertising in Deland and as a freelance artist.

"It's wonderful to watch a person develop and grow in their work," says president Dick Pearson. "Tom has done that admirably in his time here and it's a pleasure to promote him to a job I know he can do well."

Hines attended North Carolina State University at Raleigh and earned an AAS degree in commercial graphics from Randolph Tech College in Asheboro. A native of Kenansville, Hines and his wife Evelyn now reside in Lakeland.

Established 19 years ago, PC&S is one of the largest and fastest-growing advertising-public relations firms in the state of Florida with a staff of 34 professionals in offices in Lakeland, Tampa and Bradenton. The company is a member of the American Association of Advertising Agencies.
