Ella Cooper Circle Meets
Mesdames Bobby Heath and Sally Tyndall were co-hostesses for the Ella Cooper Circle of the Women of the local Baptist Church when it met last Monday night in the home of Mrs. Heath. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Amos Brinson and Mrs. Tyndall, assisted by Rose Swain, conducted the devotional. The program on Moses was presented by the Rev. Lauren R. Sharpe. For refreshments, the hostesses served a congealed salad with assorted crackers, fruit-cake cookies and hot apple juice to the ten present.

Thursday night. Additional guests were Mesdames Henry Guy, Joyce Bell and Beverly Rouse. High score prize was won by Mrs. Mark Vinson and second high by Mrs. Bert Alabaster. Consolation prize went to Mrs. Earl Stroud and Mrs. Guy carried home the traveling prize. For refreshments, Mrs. Brinson served cocoanut cake, toasted nuts and coffee.

Red Cross Reminder
Just a few words to remind our readers that you are invited to attend the mid-winter meeting of the Duplin County Chapter of the American Red Cross to be held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 27 at 4 p.m. in the fellowship hall of Grove Presbyterian Church. This is a good time to hear more about the blood program and other activities.

Personals
Mesdames J.B. Stroud and Jimmy Jackson visited Miss Sharon Stroud in Raleigh one day last week. Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Paschall of Whiteville and Mr. and Mrs. Art Paschal and son of New Bern visited the Gordon Kornegays Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jones and Amy of Wilmington spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Jones.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Hewitt of Wilmington spent the weekend with the Wiley T. Booths. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bateman of Elizabeth City visited Mrs. Ima Williamson on Sunday afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to express my thanks and appreciation for all the prayers, cards, visits and beautiful flowers sent me during my stay in Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville. I missed all of you so much. May the Lord bless each one of you.

Sutton Named City Executive

Bill Sutton has been named city executive of the Wallace office of United Carolina Bank, according to R.E. Kizer Jr., banking group executive. Sutton moves to Wallace from the bank's Newton Grove office where he was city executive. Having joined the bank in 1971 as a management trainee, Sutton has worked in various positions in Beulaville and Kenansville.

He graduated from the University of South Carolina at Columbia and has completed the mid-management and advanced-management programs of the North Carolina School of Banking at Chapel Hill.

Sutton serves as chairman of the Sampson County Rural Medical Services, board member of the Newton Grove Medical Center, and member of the Newton Grove Lions Club.

As a member of the St. Paul's Episcopal Church, he is a member of the vestry and an active layreader.

Sutton and his wife, Susan, are the parents of three children: Will, Med and Gregg.

UCB operates 89 offices in 49 N.C. cities, towns and communities. It is the seventh largest bank in the state with assets in excess of $850 million.
