

Duplin 4-H Members Recognized

Duplin County's top 4-H Club members have been honored by the Duplin County Board of Commissioners at a banquet at the Country Squire restaurant.

Paid for by the county, the banquet recognized the work of 80 of the county's 800 4-H Club members. Those invited had won awards or similar recognition for their achievements.

Named outstanding junior 4-H members were Bernard Hall of Route 1, Magnolia, a member of the Stanford 4-H Club, and Bryant Murphy of Rose Hill, a member of the Teachey 4-H Club.

Outstanding senior 4-H members were Pam Kelly of Wallace, Decca 4-H Club, and Amy West of Route 2, Warsaw, New Horizons 4-H Club.

OUTSTANDING 4-H'ERS - Certificates of appreciation were presented to the Outstanding Junior and Senior 4-H'ers at the annual 4-H appreciation banquet held at the Country Squire restaurant. Four-H'ers from all over Duplin County who excelled in their projects were in attendance. Pictured above are Outstanding Juniors, Bernard Hall and Bryant Murphy, and Outstanding Seniors Amy West and Pam Kelly.

Johnson Elected To Baptist Children's Homes Board Of Trustees

Warsaw resident John A. Johnson has been elected to the board of trustees for the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina Inc. for the 1983-86 term.

Johnson is clerk of the Superior Court of Duplin County and served on the board from 1978-81.

"Members of the board of trustees of the Baptist Children's Homes of N.C. Inc., elected by the Baptist State Convention, are vital to the total ministry of the Homes," said Dr. W.R. Wagoner, president of the Children's Homes. "A primary function of the trustees is to determine the services and policies of the institution. We are fortunate to have the leadership of John A. Johnson on our board of trustees."
