

Draughton-Graham United In Marriage

Kaywood Graham and William Stanley Draughton were married at seven-thirty o'clock on Friday, February 18th, at the Presbyterian Church in Warsaw. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Mack Thompson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Graham of Route 2, Warsaw. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Draughton of Duplin County Club Estates, Route 1, Kenansville.

The bride and groom entered the church together to walk down the aisle. She wore a formal gown of candlelight silkened crepe designed with a portrait neckline and long calla point sleeves. The gown featured appliques of rose point lace and seeded pearls scattered over the sleeves and the accordion-pleated skirt. The bride carried a nosegay of mixed spring flowers with bridal streamers.

Miss Barri Ann Smith of Magnolia, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length dress of purple and white accented with lace and ruffles and carried a miniature bridal bouquet.

Steve Draughton of Warsaw, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Walter P. West, organist, presented the program of wedding music. Traditional bridal marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The church was decorated with an altar setting of mixed spring flowers flanked by cathedral candelabras holding white candles.

The bridal couple and their parents received guests in the vestibule after the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Meredith College and employed at Lundy's in Clinton. The groom is associated with Cavanaugh Insurance and Realty in Warsaw.

After a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va. the couple will reside at Grove Creek near Warsaw.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED - Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lee Jones of Rose Hill announce the engagement of their daughter, Glenda Faye Jones of Atlanta, Ga. to James Russell Kanner of Atlanta, Ga., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kanner of Upper Nyack, N.Y. The wedding is planned for May 28th at the Rose Hill United Methodist Church.

BLAND-SUTTON ENGAGEMENT - Mr. and Mrs. Davis Bland Jr. of Magnolia wish to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Jennifer, to Rickey Lynn Sutton of Kenansville, son of Mr. Lynn Sutton of Kenansville and Linda J. McQueen of Fort Knox, Kentucky. An April 23rd wedding is planned.

Arts Council Brings Bob Hall

History can be exciting, so let the kids share in the excitement. Friendsville, ideas and kids — a great combination.

Bob Hall brings these ideas to Duplin County March 3 and 4. Duplin County Arts Council and the Grassroots funding program will bring a unique type of talent to three area schools. Hall combines many teaching possibilities with his American Folk Show and his Friendsville K-3 performances. Hall will be at Chinquapin II, B.F. Grady Elementary and Wallace Elementary.

JK Chapter Hears About Flag Charges

The James Kenan Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met Feb. 9 at the home of Mrs. Mary Blackburn in Warsaw, with Mrs. Marion Jeski and Mrs. Kathleen Snyder as co-hostesses, also. Special guests were Mrs. Carmen Reavis, district director, and Mrs. Mary Jane Moore, past division president.

Mrs. N.B. Boney led the pledge to the U.S. flag and salutes to the North Carolina and Confederate flags. The president, Mrs. Celestial Colwell led the ritual.

Mrs. Ruby Holland introduced Mrs. Reavis, district director, who gave the program entitled "Changes of the Confederate Flag Through the Years." She discussed events in our nation's history which effected the changes in the makeup of the flag. Members enjoyed this informative review of this part of American history.
