Girl Scout Week

"We've Found A New World"

On March 12, 1912, Juliette Gordon Low started Girl Scouting in the United States in Savannah, Ga., when 18 girls met in her home and formed the first troop. Each year since that historic date, Girl Scouts have celebrated their own birthday the week in which the March 12 date falls. Girl Scouting in the U.S. is a part of a world-wide movement which members in more than 90 nations banded together through the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. The spiritual force of the movement and the ethical code accepted by all its members are expressed in the Promise and Law. Although there are some variations in wording from one country to another, the principles are always the same — belief in God, service, responsible citizenship, high ideals of character and conduct, and appreciation of the worth of all people. "We've Found a New World," the 1983 theme, is most appropriate as it exemplifies the enthusiasm, discovery and adventure that have always marked Girl Scouting and the qualities that have attracted and retained members for 71 years. Both girls and adults have found a new world through sharing their interests and skills. Girl Scouting provides a direct and personal way that marked Juliette Low's recruitment efforts in 1912 to open a new world to girls and adults of today. Today there are more than three million Girl Scouts and volunteers in the U.S. The Coastal Carolina Council is one of 336 councils with a membership of more than 10,000 girls, ages 6-17, and adults. The program is built on a foundation of proven values and is designed to help a girl make intelligent choices for herself involving her career and future to find her new world. Christine DeWitt, Duplin service unit chairman, states "Girl Scouting has proven itself to be more than an after-school activity, but has been a pioneer in helping girls assess their needs, realize their goals and determine their own destinies, helping them achieve success in many undertakings. Active membership in the organization can be a springboard to a significant involvement with people, the community, and the world of the future. One of our major goals is to bring each girl an awareness of her own personal worth and a chance to grow as an individual." Tyre Lodge #68 commended local Girl Scouts for their contributions to the well-being of the community, past and future. Some of the services provided this year include "a tree of warmth" for foster children, Easter baskets for Headstart students, and a community clean-up project. Mrs. M. Brown added that "None of these accomplishments would have been possible without the generous volunteer efforts of the Duplin local troop leaders. They are special people who recognize the responsibility adults have for preparing youngsters for the uncertainties of the future in a very troubled world. Today's girls need to belong and feel close to others — they get that in Girl Scouting. They learn useful skills, of course, but there's always times for songs and laughter — just plain good wholesome fun which is a necessary ingredient for a happy, relaxed person." She concluded that more and more girls are interested in becoming Girl Scouts, and adult volunteers are always needed for a variety of long or short term positions. Mrs. DeWitt urges all interested persons to contact her. Duplin Girl Scouts are served by the Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina, Inc., which is a United Way Agency. The council is chartered by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. to serve 25 counties in eastern North Carolina.

Black History Week

Music can be a great source for presenting history to children. On Feb. 11, this idea was used by LaVone Hicks to commemorate Black History Week at Warsaw and Kenansville elementary schools where she teaches music. Beginning with the 1600s and tracing up to today, Hicks told how the lifestyle and social conditions influenced the Black music. Materials used were the piano, records and the versatile voice of Mrs. Hicks.

Selections used to demonstrate each style were: African call-response - "Jambo" - record; Spiritual - "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen"; Folk Classic - "Summertime" from the opera Porgy and Bess; Jazz - "Boogie Woogie" - piano; Blues - "Good Morning Blues" by Leadbelly - record; Gospel - "Precious Lord Take My Hand"; Rock and Roll - "Maybelline" and "Tutti Frutti" - record; Contemporary Pop - "Ebony and Ivory" - record.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE JUDGES OF ISRAEL

BEFORE THE ADVENT OF KINGS THE LEADERS AMONG THE ISRAELITES WERE JUDGES. THESE WERE THE HEROES WHO GUIDED AND GUARDED THE PEOPLE FROM THEIR MANY ENEMIES. THERE WAS OTHNIEL OF JUDAH, DELIVERER OF ISRAEL FROM THE MESOPOTAMIANS, AND EHUD, WHO EXPELLED THE MOABITES AND AMMONITES, AND BARAK, WHO LED NAPHTALI AND ZEBULUN TO VICTORY AGAINST THE CANAANITES. ALL TOLD THERE WERE TWELVE OF THEM. THE PERIOD OF THE JUDGES HAS BEEN CALLED ISRAEL'S IRON AGE. IT WAS, TO SAY THE LEAST, A CRUEL AND BLOODY ERA. IN FACT, IT CAN BE SURMISED THAT A STATE OF ANARCHY EXISTED WHEN ONE REALIZES THAT MOST OF THE TALES OF THESE JUDGES WERE PREFACED BY THE STATEMENT, "IN THOSE DAYS THERE WAS NO KING IN ISRAEL, BUT EVERY MAN DID WHAT WAS RIGHT IN HIS OWN EYES." ALSO, THESE JUDGES DID NOT FORM AN UNBROKEN SUCCESSION OF RULERS, BUT APPEARED SPORADICALLY. THEY WERE OFTEN LOCAL HEROES WHOSE COURAGEOUS DEEDS SPREAD BY WORD OF MOUTH ONLY IN THEIR LOCAL DISTRICTS. FOR INSTANCE, SHAMGAR, DESTROYER OF SIX HUNDRED PHILISTINES, WAS NOT KNOWN THROUGHOUT ALL THE TRIBES ALTHOUGH HE HAS BEEN RATED A SAVIOR OF ALL ISRAEL.
